2018 GEORGIA SPRING MEDIA GUIDE

THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

SANFORD STADIUM

WEST END ZONE

PROJECT

The University of Georgia Athletic Association is pleased to present details on a major enhancement to the west end zone of Sanford Stadium. The project covers 120,000 total square feet of new and improved space. These enhancements include a new home locker room for the Bulldogs, a space to host and entertain prospects on game day, improvements to restroom and concession areas below the bridge, and a new scoreboard and upper plaza. The project is expected to take approximately 17 months to complete and is estimated to cost $63 million. When completed prior to the 2018 season, the west end zone expansion will have a transformational impact on Sanford Stadium.

Winners at Notre Dame. Southeastern Conference champions. Rose Bowl champions. Individual national and SEC awards. A berth in the College Football Playoff National Championship … and literally one play away from the title.

That is the Reader's Digest version of the 2017 Georgia Bulldogs, who accomplished all of that and more. And the spoils for such a memorable run? Within days of the title game, the coaches put the finishing touches on the nation's top recruiting clas, and the players were back at work in the meeting rooms, the weight room and on the field, fueled by a desire to prove that 2017 was not happenstance, but rather the start of something special.

"I think everybody can see Georgia is a force to be reckoned with," Coach Kirby Smart said at season's end. "We're not going anywhere. … With hard work, good recruiting, good coaches and good players, you give yourself a chance at success."

These spring drills will be as important as any the Bulldogs will have. As always, there are players to replace and holes to fill. Nick Chubb and Sony Michel completed their careers as two of the most successful tailbacks in both UGA and SEC history as they ran behind a line bolstered by All-American left tackle Isaiah Wynn. Linebackers Roquan Smith, Davin Bellamy and Lorenzo Carter, defensive backs Dominick Sanders and Aaron Davis and lineman Trenton Thompson paced a unit that ranked sixth nationally in both total defense and scoring defense.

But college football is a transitory sport and the coaches can only concern themselves with the ones remaining in the fold. The 2018 offense will be spearheaded by quarterback Jake Fromm, tailback D'Andre Swift, receiver Terry Godwin, tight end Isaac Nauta, among others, and an experienced offensive line. Defensively, veterans like Jonathan Ledbetter, J.R. Reed, Deandre Baker and Tyler Clark will be the nucleus, with several younger players seemingly poised to make the necessary rise.

"I do know this -- the standard was set by the (2017) seniors," Smart said. "If we have that kind of leadership, the sky's the limit. I just hope the younger class doesn't take it for granted that it just happens."

That said, here is a look at the Bulldogs heading into spring drills. Additional players are on the way in the fall and Georgia had nine early enrollee signees who will throw their hats into the ring this spring.

QUARTERBACKS

Jake Fromm was pressed into duty after an injury to Jacob Eason during the first game and went on to put together a memorable season. After going 181-of-291 for 2,615 yards and 24 touchdowns and successfully managing the Bulldogs' offense, Fromm was chosen as a Freshman All-American and as the SEC's Freshman of the Year.

Justin Fields, one of the nation's most highly-rated dual-threat quarterbacks, enrolled early and will go through spring drills. Fields garnered five-star status from all recruiting services after rolling up 4,187 yards passing, 2,096 yards rushing and 70 touchdowns in two years as a prep starter.

Stetson Bennett and Sam Vaughn have drawn praise as the Bulldogs' scout team quarterbacks. Georgia also has John Seter back in the fold.

Senior defensive end Jonathan Ledbetter started 11 games last season and returns as one of the Bulldogs' top pass rushers in 2018.

After just one season as a wide receiver, junior Mecole Hardman returns as perhaps the Bulldogs' top offensive playmaker, both as a pass catcher and kick returner.

RUNNING BACKS

Nick Chubb and Sony MIchel finished their illustrious careers ranked Nos. 2 and 3 on Georgia's all-time rushing list. A year ago, they combined for more than 2,500 yards and 31 touchdowns. Fortunately, the Bulldogs used a rotation at tailback last season, meaning there are experienced players ready to fill the void left by Chubb and Michel.

D'Andre Swift followed the seniors with 618 yards and three touchdowns with a healthy 7.6-yards-per-carry average to earn Freshman All-SEC honors. Elijah Holyfield and Brian Herrien added 293 and 265 yards, respectively, and a combined three touchdowns.

Zamir White, the nation's No. 1-rated prep prospect at tailback, rushed for 7,169 yards in his high school career before enrolling at UGA in January. Those numbers include 2,086 yards and 34 touchdowns in a senior season cut short by a knee injury, which could possibly sideline him during spring drills.

The Bulldogs also return Prather Hudson (a special teams standout), Lofton Tidwell and Ian Donald-McIntyre. The top fullback candidates are Nick Moore and Frank Sinkwich IV.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Despite the loss of leading receiver Javon Wims, the Bulldogs return a wealth of talent and experience. Terry Godwin, whose highlight-reel touchdown catch at Notre Dame helped ignite Georgia's season, hauled in 38 balls for 639 yards and six scores a year ago. Mecole Hardman made the transition from defensive back and became a reliable receiver with 25 grabs for 418 yards and four touchdowns. Riley Ridley was quiet much of the season but had a strong final game to lift him to 14 catches for 218 yards and two TDs.

The Bulldogs return additional veterans in Jayson Stanley, Jeremiah Holloman, Michael Chigbu, Tyler Simmons, Ahkil Crumpton and Trey Blount, all of whom have seen action on both offense and special teams. Kearis Jackson, who had more than 1,500 yards and 18 touchdowns receiving his last two years of high school, enrolled early to go through spring workouts.

Georgia also brings back Matt Landers, Josh Moran, Willie Erdman, Caleeb Roberson, Steven Van Tiflin, Patrick Burke, Ed Ferguson, J.T. Dooley and Wyatt Payne.

TIGHT ENDS

The Bulldogs said goodbye to stalwart Jeb Blazevich, but the position remains both deep and seasoned. Isaac Nauta and Charlie Woerner each had nine receptions last year, the former for 114 yards and two touchdowns and the latter for 100 yards. Jackson Harris added a pair of receptions last year as well, while Wix Patton returns to provide more depth.

Junior PK Rodrigo Blankenship connected on 20 of 23 field-goal attempts in 2017. Five of those came during the College Football Playoff, two of which surpassed 50 yards, including a career-long 55 yarder in the Rose Bowl Game.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

There is a void left behind by the departure of All-American Isaiah Wynn, but there are plenty of options for an offensive line that paved the way for 258 yards rushing, 177 yards passing and 35 points per game a season ago.

Lamont Gaillard returns as the line's anchor at center. Andrew Thomas earned Freshman All-America and All-SEC accolades as a 15-game starter at tackle. At season's end, Ben Cleveland and Kendall Baker were the starters at guard, with Solomon Kindley also boasting starting experience.

Georgia also returns Pat Allen, Justin Shaffer, Chris Barnes, Sean Fogarty, Sam Madden and Daniel Gothard with experience on the field and in the system. Isaiah Wilson, D'Marcus Hayes and Netori Johnson all redshirted last season and will be in the mix this spring. Highly touted prospects Warren Ericson, Trey Hill and Cade Mays enrolled early to be a part of spring camp.

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

Even with the early departure of Trenton Thompson to the NFL, the Bulldogs have veterans up front. At tackle, Tyler Clark was a late-season standout who finished with 41 stops, including six for loss and 2.5 sacks. Jonathan Ledbetter had 38 tackles, 5.5 tackles for loss, from his end position a year ago, while David Marshall recorded 26 with 2.5 behind the line. Junior Julian Rochester had 22 tackles, with 2.5 for loss, a year ago.

Georgia also returns seasoned linemen in DaQuan Hawkins-Muckle, Malik Herring, Michail Carter, Justin Young and Michael Barnett. Devonte Wyatt re-signed with Georgia after spending a season at Hutchinson (Kansas) Community College and will go through spring drills.

Koby Pyrz and Kolby Wyatt provide additional depth for Georgia.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Lorenzo Carter and Davin Bellamy left huge shoes to fill, and D'Andre Walker and Walter Grant will lead the candidates attempting to do so. Walker was not a starter a year ago, yet still accounted for 40 tackles, including 13.5 for loss and 5.5 sacks. Grant had nine tackles, but 2.5 of those were behind the line of scrimmage. Keyon Brown and Jaden Hunter lend a veteran presence as well. Robert Beal showed improvement during his redshirt campaign. Brenton Cox, a five-star prospect who as a senior had 42 tackles (with 9.5 for loss and five sacks), enrolled early to participate in spring practice.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Roquan Smith had one of the most significant seasons for a Bulldog a year ago when he won the Butkus Award, earned consensus All-America honors and led Georgia with 137 tackles. His departure for the NFL has created an opportunity for other Bulldogs to step up. Natrez Patrick followed Smith with 35 tackles at linebacker last season. Juwan Taylor, Monty Rice, Tae Crowder and Nate McBride logged most of their snaps on special teams but still combined for 49 stops. The Bulldogs also will take a look this spring at Jaleel Laguins, who is coming off a redshirt season.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The Bulldogs return a wealth of personnel in the secondary, which will lessen the blow of losing seniors Dominick Sanders, Aaron Davis and Malkom Parrish.

J.R. Reed and Deandre Baker are Georgia's leading returners on tackles and interceptions, respectively. Reed picked up 79 tackles while picking off two passes and Baker notched three picks to go along with 44 tackles. Tyrique McGhee added 25 stops and an interception a year ago.

The Bulldogs also return Richard LeCounte, Jarvis Wilson, Ameer Speed, Deangelo Gibbs, William Poole and converted receiver Mark Webb in the secondary. Tray Bishop, Latavious Brini and Eric Stokes are coming off redshirt campaigns. Divaad Wilson had eight interceptions last fall as a high schooler and will go through spring drills as an early enrollee.

Georgia has additional options with Jordon McKinney, KJ Smith, Jake Skole, Isaac Mize and Andrew Wing.

SPECIALISTS

Rodrigo Blankenship became a real weapon for the Bulldogs in 2017. He connected on 20 of 23 field-goal attempts, including two that covered more than 50 yards during the postseason, and scored 123 total points. He also boomed 67 of his 94 kickoffs for touchbacks to set the school record. Brooks Buce will join Blankenship in spring drills.

Marshall Long redshirted last season and will look to regain the form he had in 2016 when he averaged 38.7 yards per punt before being sidelined with an injury. Bill Rubright is another spring option at punter. Fullback Nick Moore is likely the leading candidate at snapper.

In 2017, Hardman was Georgia's primary returner as he averaged 25.2 yards on kickoffs and 11.8 on punts. Crumpton, Godwin, Holyfield and Stanley also had returns last season.

Deandre Baker had a team-high nine pass breakups as a junior last season, along with 44 total tackles and three interceptions.

A Look At The 2018 Slate

League contests at home against Tennessee, Vanderbilt and Auburn -- as well as the program's first game at LSU in 10 years -- highlight the 2018 football schedule.

All four of Georgia's true road games will be in SEC play, with trips to South Carolina, Missouri, LSU and Kentucky. The Bulldogs' annual neutral-field matchup with Florida in Jacksonville will be on Oct. 27. LSU will replace Mississippi State as UGA's rotating Western Division opponent, marking the first game between these two programs since 2013, and Georgia's first trip to Baton Rouge since 2008.

Georgia will kick off the 2018 season with a home contest Sept. 1 against Austin Peay, the first-ever meeting between the two schools. Other non-conference matchups in Athens include Middle Tennessee State on Sept. 15, Nov. 17 against Massachusetts and the regular season-ending rivalry game vs. Georgia Tech.

Georgia's agreement to play UMass in football also included a home-and-home series in men's basketball. The Bulldogs lost to the Minutemen 72-62 in Amherst, Mass., in December 2017. The two hoops programs will play in Athens during the 2018-19 season.

2018 Bulldog Spring Storylines

Year Three Of The Smart Era

Georgia enters the 2018 season looking to make a return trip to the College Football Playoff and continue the trend of the runner-up finisher winning the following year. In 2015, Alabama beat Clemson for the national title and then in 2016, the Tigers topped the Tide. Last year, Alabama returned to the National Championship and beat Georgia for its latest crown.

The Bulldogs welcome back 53 lettermen, including eight on offense and four on defense who ended the year in starting roles. On special teams, Georgia also returns its scoring leader in junior PK Rodrigo Blankenship along with its top punt/kickoff returner in junior Mecole Hardman.

Bulldogs Welcome Three New Coaches

Teams have now been given the opportunity to have a 10th full-time coach and the Bulldogs also filled two additional vacancies with Kevin Sherrer heading to Tennessee to become defensive coordinator and Shane Beamer leaving to work with Oklahoma. Georgia added Cortez Hankton on the offensive side of the ball and Dan Lanning on the defensive side. Hankton comes to the Bulldogs after serving as the Vanderbilt receivers coach while Lanning was Memphis' inside linebackers coach. Scott Fountain will be the additional on-field coach focusing on special teams after serving as the special teams analyst in 2017.

Head coach Kirby Smart is going into his third year with Georgia as well as Mel Tucker (defensive coordinator/secondary), Jim Chaney (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks), Sam Pittman (offensive line), James Coley (receivers), Glenn Schumann (inside linebackers) and Dell McGee (running backs). Tray Scott (defensive line) also begins his second year with the Bulldogs.

Replacing Record-Setting Tailback Tandem

Nick Chubb and Sony Michel opted to stay for their senior seasons in 2017 and helped lead the Bulldogs to an SEC title, a Rose Bowl Game victory and an appearance in the College Football Playoff National Championship. They combined for 8,407 yards rushing and 77 rushing touchdowns during their four years at Georgia.

Now, the Bulldogs will rely on their three returning backs in sophomore D'Andre Swift and juniors Brian Herrien and Elijah Holyfield. Swift was named to the 2017 All-SEC Freshman Team after leading the returners with 618 yards and three touchdowns. In addition, early enrollee Zamir White, who is rehabbing from a fall knee injury, and fellow freshman James Cook are expected to compete for playing time.

Defense Aiming To Stay At Elite Level

Georgia had one of the nation's top defenses led by Butkus Award winner and SEC Defensive Player of the Year Roquan Smith. Smith along with a host of seniors from last year's squad have now turned their attention to the NFL Draft. The Bulldogs will turn to a number of experienced veterans this fall, including returning starters DB Deandre Baker, DB J.R. Reed, DL Tyler Clark and DE Jonathan Ledbetter, in an attempt to stay one of the SEC and nation's best units.

Staff Hauls In Top-Rated Recruiting Class

Georgia finished with the country's top-ranked recruiting class for 2018, signing 26 prospects during a pair of signing periods in December and February. The Bulldog class included five-star signees Justin Fields (QB) and Brenton Cox (OLB).

Nine Early Enrollees Join The Bulldogs

Nine early enrollees started school in January and are working out with the team while they take their first classes at UGA. QB Justin Fields (Kennesaw, Ga.), RB Zamir White (Laurinburg, N.C.), OL Trey Hill (Warner Robins, Ga.), WR Kearis Jackson (Fort Valley, Ga.), OT Cade Mays (Knoxville, Tenn.), OL Warren Ericson (Suwanee, Ga.), OLB Brenton Cox (Stockbridge, Ga.), DL Devonte Wyatt (Decatur, Ga.) and DB Divaad Wilson (Miami, Fla.) make up a portion of the Bulldogs' top-ranked 2018 national signing class.

Lettermen, Starters Return From 13-2 Bulldog Team

In addition to junior PK Rodrigo Blankenship returning, the Bulldogs are returning eight offensive starters and four on defense. Sophomore QB Jake Fromm is back after going 12-2 as a starter after coming in for the injured Jacob Eason in the first game of the year. Unlike last year, the Bulldogs return four of five starting linemen, including two-year starter Lamont Gaillard at C and 2017 Freshman All-American OT Andrew Thomas. Georgia will be without last year's leading receiver Javon Wims who completed his senior year and is training for the NFL Draft. However, senior Terry Godwin and juniors Mecole Hardman and Riley Ridley, among others, do return. The Bulldogs will also feature returning TEs Isaac Nauta, Charlie Woerner and Jackson Harris to complement the running backs listed in the above box.

The leading tackler the last two seasons has departed in Roquan Smith and four starters remain from last year's unit. Senior Deandre Baker and junior J.R. Reed will anchor the backfield while senior Jonathan Ledbetter and junior Tyler Clark will join a host of returning lettermen on the front line. Junior D'Andre Walker, sophomores Monty Rice, Nate McBride and Walter Grant are expected to earn growing roles at the ILB and OLB spots.

OFFENSE

Dogs Piled Up The Points In 2017

* Georgia averaged 35.4 points/game in 2017. The Bulldogs tallied 67 touchdowns on the year. Returning PK Rodrigo Blankenship led the team with 123 points, including 63 PATs and 20 field goals.

* The Bulldogs ranked fourth nationally in Red Zone Offense, going 53-for-55, including 39 touchdowns, last year.

* QB Jake Fromm, the 2017 SEC Freshman of the Year, was 12-2 as a starter. He accounted for 27 touchdowns, one shy of the UGA record by a freshman set by Aaron Murray in 2010.

* Fromm became only the seventh true freshman Bulldog quarterback to start a game, including just the second to do it on the road in his first start. Fromm joined Eric Zeier (1991) as the only true freshmen to have their first career start on the road.

* Fromm has led his team to two comebacks when trailing at the half. One of Georgia's signature wins came with his Rose Bowl Game performance after the Bulldogs trailed 31-17 at the half and rallied to a 54-48 win in double overtime. Georgia trailed 45-38 with 3:22 remaining in the game before Fromm directed a game-tying drive.

* Fromm's first career start came at #24 Notre Dame. Trailing 19-17 with 6:47 left in the contest, Fromm directed a nine play, 63-yard drive to set up the go-ahead field goal. He was 3-for-4 for 45 yards during the drive.

A Look At The Line

* The Bulldogs return four of five starters on the offensive line, including Freshman All-American RT Andrew Thomas. Thomas is joined by rising seniors C Lamont Gaillard and LG Kendall Baker as well as redshirt sophomore RG Ben Cleveland.

* Georgia established school records with 3,876 rushing yards and 42 rushing touchdowns in 2017.

Array Of Targets Return

* The Bulldogs return six of their top seven receivers from last season, including senior Terry Godwin and junior Mecole Hardman. Godwin was second on the team with 38 catches for 639 yards and six scores while Hardman snagged 25 catches for 418 yards and four touchdowns, including an 80-yard touchdown versus Alabama in the National Championship Game.

* Georgia will be looking to replace its leading receiver in Javon Wims, who finished with 45 receptions for 720 yards and seven scores.

* Two of their top six returning receivers are tight ends and there is also a third returner at that position with significant experience. Junior Isaac Nauta started nine games in 2017 and led the corps with nine catches for 114 yards and a pair of touchdowns while junior Charlie Woerner hauled in nine receptions for 100 yards in his second season. Senior Jackson Harris has also played in 39 games in his Bulldog career.

DEFENSE

Looking For Leaders At LB

* Junior ILB Roquan Smith led a seasoned linebacker lineup last season as he was named the Butkus Award winner and the SEC Defensive Player of the Year after recording a 137 tackles, including 14 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks. He was joined by outside linebackers Lorenzo Carter and Davin Bellamy, who combined for 95 stops and 9.5 sacks in 2017. All three are now preparing for the NFL Draft.

* Also losing ILB Reggie Carter to graduation, the Bulldogs will turn to senior OLB D'Andre Walker, who played in all 15 games on defense and special teams and finished with 40 tackles, 13.5 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks. Sophomore Walter Grant also played in 13 games last year and finished with nine stops, including 2.5 tackles for loss from an OLB spot.

* 2018 sophomores Monty Rice and Nate McBride, junior Tae Crowder and senior Juwan Taylor are expected to battle for playing time at the ILB spots.

Returning Starters Headline Defensive Line Group

* Veterans Tyler Clark and Jonathan Ledbetter anchor a defensive line that lost 2017 senior John Atkins and junior Trenton Thompkins, who are both pursuing NFL careers.

* Clark led the front in the Rose Bowl Game win over #2 Oklahoma with five stops, including a sack and two tackles for loss. Clark was tops among all interior linemen with 41 stops. Ledbetter was next on the list with 38 tackles.

* Other returning lettermen expected to contribute on the line are senior DaQuan Hawkins-Muckle, juniors David Marshall, Julian Rochester, Michail Carter, Justin Young, Michael Barnett and sophomore Malik Herring.

Reed, Baker Back To Lead Defensive Backfield

* Georgia welcomes back junior J.R. Reed, a 2017 All-SEC Second Team selection. He ranked second on the team with 79 tackles, two interceptions and two fumble recoveries.

* The Bulldogs must replace the veteran trio of Dominick Sanders, Aaron Davis and Malkom Parrish. Sanders finished his career as the school record holder for interceptions (16) and was second in the SEC with career INT return yards (381).

* Senior DB Deandre Baker also started 14 games last year and returns after registering 44 tackles and three interceptions, which was second on the team behind Sanders' four last year.

Busy Season For Blankenship

* With one of the nation's top 20 offenses scoring 35.4 points/game, PK Rodrigo Blankenship was busy last year, booming 94 kickoffs, 63 PATs and 20 field goals, including a 51 yarder in overtime of the National Championship Game.

* Blankenship set a Rose Bowl Game record by drilling a career-long 55-yard field goal during the 2OT win over #2 Oklahoma. His performance included a 38-yard FG in overtime.

* He was a 2017 Groza Award semifinalist.

* Last year, 67 of his kickoffs were touchbacks, which was a new school record. The old mark was by Kevin Butler (51 in 1981).

DID YOU KNOW?

In the 2017 win over South Carolina, the Bulldogs' first three scoring drives were all 10 or more plays and they went for 69, 75 and 75 yards. Coming into the matchup with the Gamecocks through their first eight games last season, the Bulldogs had posted only four drives that measured 10 or more plays in its 38 touchdown drives to that point.

AND HOW ABOUT THIS?

Kirby Smart is 8-1 in his Bulldog career for night games, including a 4-1 record during the 2017 season.

When Georgia looked for a new head football coach after the 2015 season, the arrows all pointed to Kirby Smart, longtime University of Alabama defensive coordinator and former Bulldog player and assistant coach. And after two years, he has not disappointed.

His impact, along with a stellar group of seniors, made his second season a special one with an 11-1 regular-season record, a victory in the 2017 Southeastern Conference championship game, defeat of Oklahoma in the Rose Bowl (College Football Playoff semi-final) and advancement into the College Football Playoff National Championship Game in the program's first appearance. In the SEC championship game, the 'Dawgs avenged its only regular season loss with a 28-7 victory over Auburn. It was the first conference title since 2005 for the Red and Black. With the win, Smart became the youngest coach to win the title in an SEC Championship Game appearance. Smart was named 2017 Georgia Munger National Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Football Club, SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and SEC Coaches and the Regional Coach of the Year by the AFCA.

In his first season leading the Bulldogs, Georgia extended its school record to 20 straight bowl appearances and posted four fourth-quarter comebacks, including wins over No. 8 Auburn and No. 22 North Carolina. He led the Bulldogs to an 8-5 final record, which included a victory over TCU in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

Smart has also made an immediate impact in recruiting circles by posting the nation's third-ranked class in 2017, followed by the 2018 class of signees that ranked first nationally by every authority. In addition to his coaching duties, Smart oversees the Kirby Smart Family Foundation, which is focused on being champions in the community by supporting and giving back to needy children and families facing adversity.

Smart officially came home to Georgia on Dec. 6, 2015. But he still had unfinished business at Alabama, which was still chasing a national title. He juggled two jobs for a month until January 11, 2016, when the Crimson Tide won its fourth national championship in a 7-year span. Twelve hours later, he was at work in Athens, where he remains one of nine head coaches at schools from Power 5 conferences that are coaching at their alma mater.

Smart had served on the Alabama staff the previous nine years, the past seven as defensive coordinator. During his tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide won three BCS National Championships, one College Football Playoff national title, three SEC crowns, six SEC western division titles, and was ranked in the nation's final top ten rankings the last eight years in a row.

A former standout defensive back and scholar-athlete at Georgia, Smart was one of the nation's most respected defensive coordinators. During his time at Alabama, he coached players at three different positions, in addition to his coordinating duties. He was recognized as the 2012 AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year and the 2009 Broyles Award winner as college football's top assistant coach. He was also a finalist for the 2015 Broyles Award.

Prior to joining the Alabama staff in 2007, Smart spent the 2006 season as safeties coach with the NFL's Miami Dolphins. He served six years on the collegiate level as the running backs coach at Georgia (2005), defensive backs coach at LSU (2004), graduate assistant at Florida State (2002-03), defensive coordinator/linebackers coach (2001) and defensive backs coach (2000) at Valdosta State, and administrative assistant at UGA (1999).

Smart was the running backs coach on Georgia's 2005 SEC Championship team. His unit averaged 162.2 rushing yards per game, third in the SEC. He coached Thomas Brown, Danny Ware, and Kregg Lumpkin—all future NFL players. In 2004 at LSU, he tutored two NFL draft picks: Corey Webster (2nd round, N.Y. Giants) and Travis Daniels (4th round, Miami).

As a player, Smart was a four-year letterman at defensive back for Georgia, where he was a first team All-SEC pick as a senior. He finished his career with 13 interceptions, a mark that still ranks fifth in UGA annals, and led the Bulldogs with six interceptions in 1997, five in '98. He led the SEC in interceptions during his final season. Smart also scored two points as a collegian. He was the first player in UGA history -- and one of just two Bulldogs since the rule was introduced in 1988 -- to return a blocked PAT kick for two points, having brought one back 88 yards against New Mexico State in his freshman year of 1995.

The 2015 Alabama defense ranked first nationally in rushing defense, third in total defense, and third in scoring defense. .His 2014 Alabama defense ranked, passing fourth nationally against the run. The Crimson Tide ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense, while ranking 12th nationally in total defense. He helped junior safety Landon Collins earn unanimous first-team All-America honors while being selected as a finalist for the Nagurski Trophy, Thorpe Award and Lott Trophy.

Smart crafted another elite Alabama defense in 2013 after losing six more players to the NFL. The Crimson Tide ranked fourth nationally in scoring defense while ranking fifth in total defense, seventh in rushing defense and 11th in pass defense. Alabama was fourth nationally in red zone defense and fourth in fewest first downs allowed. He helped mold C.J. Mosley into the nation's best linebacker and winner of the Butkus Award.

Smart retooled the Alabama defense in 2012, molding a unit that lost six starters to the NFL after the 2011 season. The Tide led the nation in total defense, scoring defense and rush defense while ranking seventh in pass defense and pass efficiency defense. The Tide defense featured two first team All-Americans in cornerback Dee Milliner and linebacker Mosley.

Smart's rebuilding job in 2010 was impressive, as the Tide remained one of the nation's elite defensive units while replacing nine starters. Alabama led the SEC and ranked third nationally in scoring defense and fifth in total defense.

The 2009 season was a special one for Smart, as he not only helped lead Alabama to the national championship but also took home the Broyles Award as the top assistant coach in the country. The UA defense again was regarded as one of the nation's top units, leading the SEC and ranking second nationally in scoring defense pass efficiency defense, rush defense and total defense.

In the 2010 BCS National Championship game against Texas, the Tide recorded four interceptions and scored a defensive touchdown. Three players on Smart's defense earned first-team All-America honors – linebacker Rolando McClain, cornerback Javier Arenas and nose guard Terrence Cody.

A four-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Smart received his BBA degree in Finance from UGA in 1998 and his M.S. in Physical Education from Florida State in 2003. The Bainbridge, Ga., native is married to the former Mary Beth Lycett of McDonough, Ga., a 4-year letter-winner, and 2-year starter, on the Georgia women's basketball team from 2000-2003. The couple met long after their undergraduate days at UGA, when Lycett -- then working in the UGAAA business office -- helped arrange Smart's trip to interview for the Bulldogs' running backs coaching job in 2005. They are now the proud parents of twins Weston and Julia (Feb. 8, 2008) and son Andrew (May 25, 2012).

Jim Chaney

Offensive Coordinator — Tight Ends

Jim Chaney was named offensive coordinator and tight ends coach at UGA in March of 2018 after two seasons coordinating the Bulldog offense and coaching quarterbacks.

Chaney was part of a 2017 staff that led the Bulldogs to a record-tying 13 victories, first SEC championship since 2005, first appearance in the College Football Playoff, first appearance (and victory over Oklahoma) in the Rose Bowl CFP semi-final game, and first appearance in the College Football Playoff Championship Game. Georgia's offense finished first in the SEC and 9th nationally in Rushing Offense (258.4 ypg), 3rd in the SEC in Scoring Offense (35.4 ppg), 5th in Total Offense (435.3 ypg), and 4th nationally in Red Zone Offense (0.964).

In 2016, Chaney tutored rookie quarterback Jacob Eason, who started 12 of 13 games for the Bulldogs and threw for 2,430 yards, fourth-most for a freshman in UGA history.

A 33-year coaching veteran in the SEC, Big Ten, ACC, and the NFL, Chaney served the 2015 season at Pittsburgh after a two-year tenure at Arkansas (2013-14). He has also served as offensive coordinator at Tennessee (2009-12), Purdue (1997-2005), and Cal State Fullerton (1988-92).

Chaney also spent three years in the NFL with the St. Louis Rams (2006-08) working with the offensive line for two seasons and the tight ends for one. Steven Jackson was a 1,000-yard rusher in each of Chaney's three seasons in St. Louis. At Purdue, he coached quarterback Drew Brees, who led the nation in total offense in 2000 and won the Maxwell Award as the college player of the year. Ten years later Brees led the New Orleans Saints to a Super Bowl title.

In 2014 Chaney was instrumental in Arkansas achieving its first winning campaign in three years. The Razorbacks averaged 406 yards and 31.9 points per game, capping the season with a 31-7 rout of Texas in the Texas Bowl. Chaney's offense produced two 1,000-yard rushers and a 2,000-yard passer.

Tennessee in 2012 ranked among the nation's most productive offenses, finishing 15th in passing yards, 18th in total offense and 22nd in scoring. That same year, UT quarterback Tyler Bray threw for 3,612 yards and 34 touchdowns, both career bests. Chaney also served as Tennessee's interim head coach for the 2012 season finale, a 37-17 win over Kentucky.

Chaney is a 1985 graduate of Central Missouri State. He and his wife Lisa have two daughters, Elizabeth and Sara.

Mel Tucker

Defensive Coordinator — Defensive Backs

Mel Tucker, assistant head coach and defensive backs coach at the University of Alabama and former NFL defensive coordinator, was named UGA defensive coordinator and secondary coach on January 12, 2016.

Tucker was part of a 2017 staff that led the Bulldogs to a record-tying 13 victories, first SEC championship since 2005, first appearance in the College Football Playoff, first appearance (and victory over Oklahoma) in the Rose Bowl CFP semi-final game, and first appearance in the College Football Playoff Championship Game. Georgia's defense finished second in the SEC and 6th nationally in Scoring Defense (16.4 ppg), 2nd in the SEC and 6th nationally in Total Defense (294.9 ypg), and 2nd in the SEC in Rushing Defense.

In his first year at UGA, Tucker guided a Bulldog defense that ranked among the nation's top 20 units in the following categories: total defense, passing defense, turnovers gained, and first down defense.

Tucker joined the Crimson Tide staff in January, 2015, after serving seven years as an NFL defensive coordinator: two with the Chicago Bears (2013-14), four with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2009-12), and one with the Cleveland Browns (2008). The Jags ranked sixth in the league in total defense in 2011, allowing just 313.0 yards per game. Tucker was Jacksonville's interim head coach for the final five games of that season. He earned the additional title of assistant head coach with the Jaguars in 2012.

Tucker was also on the Browns staff from 2005-07 as defensive backs coach before taking over as defensive coordinator in 2008. In that season, the Browns were second in the NFL with 23 interceptions and ranked 16th in scoring defense (21.9 points per game).

Tucker joined Nick Saban's staff at Michigan State as a graduate assistant in 1997. After two years there, he went to work as a defensive backs coach at Miami (Ohio) for one season in 1999. In 2000, Tucker returned to work with Saban at LSU for one season before going to Ohio State for a four-year stint (2001-04). The Buckeyes went 14-0 in 2002 and won the BCS National Championship. Tucker was elevated to co-defensive coordinator in 2004.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Tucker attended Cleveland Heights High School where he was a football standout and earned a scholarship to Wisconsin. He was a four-year letterman at defensive back for the Badgers and graduated in 1995.

Tucker's wife, Jo-Ellyn, earned her undergraduate degree at Illinois and her law degree from Rutgers. The couple has two sons: Joseph (16) and Christian (14).

James Coley

Co-Offensive Coordinator — Quarterbacks

James Coley, former offensive coordinator at Miami and Florida State, was named wide receivers coach at UGA in January of 2016. He was named Co-Offensive Coordinator and quarterbacks coach in advance of spring practice in 2018.

Coley was part of a 2017 staff that led the Bulldogs to a record-tying 13 victories, first SEC championship since 2005, first appearance in the College Football Playoff, first appearance (and victory over Oklahoma) in the Rose Bowl CFP semi-final game, and first appearance in the College Football Playoff Championship Game. Georgia's offense finished first in the SEC and 9th nationally in Rushing Offense (258.4 ypg), 3rd in the SEC in Scoring Offense (35.4 ppg), 5th in Total Offense (435.3 ypg), and 4th nationally in Red Zone Offense (0.964).

Coley's first year of coaching the Bulldog receivers produced an outstanding season from Isaiah McKenzie, who caught 44 passes and scored seven touchdowns. He was later taken by Denver in the fifth round of the 2017 NFL Draft.

Coley served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Miami from 2013-15. Prior to joining the Miami staff, he coached at Florida State, serving first as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator in 2008-09, then offensive coordinator and tight ends coach in 2010-12. A native of Miami, he served as an offensive assistant with the Miami Dolphins in 2005-06. His coaching resume also included a stop at 2003 national champ LSU where he served as a graduate assistant coach.

He has coached numerous NFL receivers during his career. At Miami Norland he coached NFL first round picks Andre Johnson and Dwayne Bowe and second round pick Roscoe Parrish; at FSU he mentored first round pick Kelvin Benjamin and fifth rounder Rashad Greene; at Miami he coached first round pick Phillip Dorsett and Allen Hurns; and with the Dolphins he coached Wes Welker.

Coley earned his bachelor's degree from FSU in 1997 and his master's degree from LSU in 2004. He and his wife Kenia have two children – Madison and Brady.

Scott Fountain

Special Teams Coordinator

Scott Fountain, a native of East Brewton, Ala., returns to the Georgia staff as an on-field assistant after serving as a special teams analyst for the 2017 season, and also for a brief time in the offseason as special teams coordinator at Mississippi State.

Fountain played a key role in an outstanding season for Georgia's special teams in 2017. Mecole Hardman ranked 8th and 21st nationally in punt and kickoff returns, respectively. Georgia's coverage teams also held opponents to 5.9 yards per punt return and 19.5 yards per kick return. Those numbers were all improved from a year prior, when opponents averaged 6.1 yards per punt return and 23.8 yards per punt return.

Additionally, placekicker Rodrigo Blankenship made 20 of his 23 field goal attempts this season, including two kicks over 50 yards in the College Football Playoffs. He made all 63 of his PAT attempts, kicked 67 touchbacks (a Georgia season record and No. 3 nationally) and was named a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award. Punter Cameron Nizialek averaged 45 yards per punt (9th nationally) and was named a semifinalist for the Ray Guy Award.

Before joining Georgia's staff, Fountain had spent the previous eight years assisting the football program at Auburn, the first four as the Tigers' player personnel director and the latter four as an on-field assistant, coordinating special teams and coaching tight ends. From 2014-16, Fountain coached kicker Daniel Carlson, a three-time Lou Groza Award finalist.

Fountain, a part of three SEC championship teams, led Auburn's administrative and recruiting efforts from 2009-12. He followed Gene Chizik to Auburn after spending two seasons (2007-08) on Chizik's staff at Iowa State as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator.

Fountain earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Samford in 1988 and a master's degree in educational leadership from Florida State in 1998. He is married to the former Rosie Hidalgo and the couple has four sons: Brookes, Hunter, Tanner and Skyler.

Cortez Hankton

Assistant Coach — Wide Receivers

Former NFL wide receiver Cortez Hankton joined the Georgia coaching staff in February, 2018, after serving three years coaching wide receivers at Vanderbilt.

During his three seasons at Vanderbilt, Hankton coached veteran receivers C.J. Duncan and Trent Sherfield, Caleb Scott and Kalija Lipscomb. In 2016 this foursome combined for 129 catches and 1,715 yards. In 2017, Duncan and Sherfield combined for 102 receptions, 1,246 yards and 10 TDs. Sherfield ended his career among Vandy's top 10 in receptions (136) and 1,869 yards.

Prior to his tenure at Vanderbilt, Hankton coached receivers for three seasons at Dartmouth in the Ivy League (2012-14). During that time, he helped the Big Green to a 20-10 overall record, including an 8-2 mark in 2014. That year, Hankton's receivers helped the Dartmouth offense average 31.3 points and 248.1 passing yards. His top receiver, Ryan McManus, earned All-Ivy League honors after catching 68 passes for 879 yards and eight touchdowns.

A graduate of Texas Southern, Hankton was signed as an undrafted rookie free agent in April, 2003, by the Jacksonville Jaguars. He played in all 16 games as a rookie, catching 17 passes for 166 yards. In his four years with the Jaguars, he caught 34 passes for 310 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Hankton signed with the Minnesota Vikings in 2007 and spent the entire 2008 season on injured reserve with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Hankton earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Texas Southern in 2002, where he set school season and career records for receiving yards. A four-year starter and two-year captain, he was Texas Southern's team MVP and an All-SWAC honoree as a junior and senior. Hankton culminated his collegiate career by being named as a Division I-AA third-team All-America by the Associated Press.

A native of New Orleans, Hankton is the son of Cortez Sr. and Sherome Hankton, both officers in the city's police department. Hankton was a standout athlete and at St. Augustine High School in New Orleans.

Hankton and his wife, the former Shon Holder, were married in July, 2014. They are the parents of Cortez "Trip" Hankton III.

Dan Lanning

Assistant Coach — Outside Linebackers

Dan Lanning was named assistant coach at the University of Georgia in January, 2018, after serving two years as inside linebacker coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Memphis.

Lanning joined the Memphis staff in 2016 after spending the 2015 season at Alabama as a graduate assistant coach with the outside linebackers. Prior to Alabama, Lanning held positions at Pittsburgh (2011), Arizona State (2012-13) and Sam Houston State (2014).

At Memphis he was part of a staff that led the Tigers to their third 10-win season in school history and finished in the top five in the country in turnovers gained two years in a row. On that team, Lanning coached two-time first-team All-American Athletic Conference linebacker Genard Avery.

Lanning worked with a 2015 Crimson Tide defense that ranked in the top 10 nationally in five statistical categories: total defense (3rd), rushing defense (1st), passing efficiency defense (8th), scoring defense (3rd) and third down conversion defense (7th).

Lanning began molding his defensive philosophy with his coaching start at Park Hill South High School in Riverside, Mo., from 2008-10. In his three seasons there, he served as an assistant coach with emphases on special teams, defensive backs and wide receivers.

Lanning began his collegiate coaching career as a grad assistant on the Pitt staff of head coach Todd Graham. In his role, Lanning worked with the defensive backs coach and as a lead recruiter for several northeastern states.

A Richmond, Mo., native, Lanning played linebacker at William Jewell College, located in Liberty, Mo. He earned two Bachelor of Science degrees in physical education and secondary education in 2008. Two years later, Lanning completed coursework for his master's degree in secondary administration from William Woods University in Fulton, Mo.

Lanning and his wife, Sauphia, have three sons: Caden, Kniles and Titan.

Dell McGee

Assistant Head Coach — Running Backs

Dell McGee was named Assistant Head Coach in March of 2018 after two seasons as an assistant coach, overseeing running backs.

Just 10 days before he came to UGA, McGee had led Georgia Southern to victory in its first-ever bowl game (GoDaddy Bowl) as interim head coach.

McGee was part of a 2017 staff that led the Bulldogs to a record-tying 13 victories, first SEC championship since 2005, first appearance in the College Football Playoff, first appearance (and victory over Oklahoma) in the Rose Bowl CFP semifinal game, and first appearance in the College Football Playoff Championship Game. Georgia's offense finished first in the SEC (9th nationally) in Rushing Offense, 3rd in Scoring Offense, 5th in Total Offense, and 2nd (4th nationally) in Red Zone Offense.

The 2017-18 campaign was a banner year for McGee. His two star pupils, Nick Chubb and Sony Michel, amassed over 8,400 yards and 87 TDs between them and finished as the Nos. 2 & 3 career rushers in UGA history. Additionally, Rivals.com named McGee the 2018 National Recruiter of the Year after the Bulldogs signed the consensus No. 1-rated recruiting class.

McGee served as running backs coach at Georgia Southern in 2014-15, when the Eagles led the nation in rushing offense—384 yards per game in 2014 and 363 yards per game in 2015. GSU won the Sun Belt Championship in 2014 and had four backs top the 600-yard rushing mark in 2015. McGee had been promoted to associate head coach early in the 2015 season.

Prior to joining the Georgia Southern staff, McGee served one season at Auburn, his alma mater, where he worked as an analyst in 2013 when the Tigers reached the BCS Championship Game.

McGee developed Carver-Columbus High School into a perennial powerhouse as the Tigers rattled off seven straight seasons with 10 or more wins, including a perfect 15-0 season en route to the Georgia state title in 2007.

McGee was a two-year starter and four-year letterwinner at Auburn from 1992-95. The Arizona Cardinals picked McGee in the 5th round of the 1996 NFL Draft and he remained with the organization through 1998.

McGee and his wife Linda have a son, Austin.

Sam Pittman

Assistant Coach — Offensive Line

Sam Pittman was named offensive line coach at UGA on Dec. 12, 2015, after serving three years at Arkansas as offensive line coach, associate head coach and recruiting coordinator.

Pittman was part of a 2017 staff that led the Bulldogs to a record-tying 13 victories, first SEC championship since 2005, first appearance in the College Football Playoff, first appearance (and victory over Oklahoma) in the Rose Bowl CFP semi-final game, and first appearance in the College Football Playoff Championship Game. Georgia's offense finished first in the SEC and 9th nationally in Rushing Offense (258.4 ypg), 3rd in the SEC in Scoring Offense (35.4 ppg), 5th in Total Offense (435.3 ypg), and 4th nationally in Red Zone Offense (0.964).

Pittman is widely regarded among the nation's best offensive line coaches and recruiters. Since 2013, eight offensive linemen coached by Pittman have been drafted, including two first-round picks, and three others have signed free agent contracts. Two of his charges in 2017 — senior Isaiah Wynn and freshman Andrew Thomas — earned All-America and All-SEC honors.

Of Pittman's eight drafted offensive linemen in 2013-14, Ja'Wuan James (Tennessee) was selected 19th overall by Miami in 2014 and Travis Swanson became the highest Arkansas center draft pick in school history when he was picked 76th overall by Detroit. In 2013, Jonathan Cooper, who was tutored by Pittman for four seasons at UNC, was the seventh overall pick by Arizona.

Pittman previously served as offensive line coach at Tennessee (2012), Associate Head Coach and offensive line coach at North Carolina (2007-11), and offensive line coach at Northern Illinois (2003-06).

Pittman played at Pittsburg State, where he was a first-team NAIA All-American and twice earned all-conference recognition. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in 1986 and was inducted into the PSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1998. He is married to his wife, Jamie.

Glenn Schumann

Assistant Coach — Inside Linebackers

Glenn Schumann was named inside linebackers coach at the University of Georgia on Dec. 12, 2015, after serving two years as Director of Player Development and Associate Director of Player Personnel at the University of Alabama.

Schumann was part of a 2017 staff that led the Bulldogs to a record-tying 13 victories, first SEC championship since 2005, first appearance in the College Football Playoff, Rose Bowl CFP semi-final victory, and first appearance in the College Football Playoff Championship Game. Georgia's defense finished second in the SEC and 6th nationally in Scoring Defense, 2nd in the SEC and 6th nationally in Total Defense, and 2nd in the SEC in Rushing Defense.

Schumann's star pupil over his first two years was Roquan Smith, the Bulldogs' leading tackler who capped his junior season by winning the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker, in addition to being named SEC Defensive Player of the Year. Smith was a consensus All-American, finalist for the Nagurski and Bednarik Awards, and finished in the top ten in the Heisman Trophy voting.

Schumann spent eight years with the Crimson Tide, first as an undergraduate analyst (2008-Dec. 2011), then as a graduate assistant (Dec. 2011-Feb. 2014) and for his final season as Director of Player Development and Associate Director of Player Personnel. During his tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide won three BCS National Championships, one College Football Playoff national title, three SEC crowns, six SEC western division titles, and was ranked in the nation's final top ten eight years in a row.

Born in Valdosta, Ga., Schumann graduated from McKinney Boyd High School in McKinney, Texas, where he lettered in both football and basketball. He earned his bachelor of arts degree from Alabama in December, 2011, and a masters in sports management from the Capstone in December, 2013. He and his wife Lauren were married in the summer of 2015.

Tray Scott

Assistant Coach — Defensive Line

Tray Scott was named defensive line coach at Georgia in February of 2017 after two seasons in a similar capacity at the University of North Carolina.

Scott was part of a 2017 staff that led the Bulldogs to a record-tying 13 victories, first SEC championship since 2005, first appearance in the College Football Playoff, first appearance (and victory over Oklahoma) in the Rose Bowl CFP semi-final game, and first appearance in the College Football Playoff Championship Game. Georgia's defense finished second in the SEC and 6th nationally in Scoring Defense (16.4 ppg), 2nd in the SEC and 6th nationally in Total Defense (294.9 ypg), and 2nd in the SEC in Rushing Defense.

In his two campaigns in Chapel Hill, Scott helped UNC reach back-to-back bowl games and the 2015 ACC Championship Game. Scott's 2016 unit was especially effective in the Red Zone, ranking 35th nationally allowing opponents to score only 79.6 percent of the time.

Scott's top player during his tenure at UNC was Nazair Jones, an All-ACC tackle who had 70 stops, 9.5 for lost yardage and 2.5 QB sacks as a junior in 2016. Jones was a third-round selection by the Seattle Seahawks in the 2017 NFL Draft.

Prior to moving to North Carolina, Scott served two years (2013-14) as defensive line coach at UT Martin, an FCS team in the Ohio Valley Conference. He also held positions as defensive line graduate assistant at Ole Miss (2012), assistant coach at Arkansas State (2010-11). Scott was also a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Arkansas Tech, from the fall of 2008 until the spring of 2010.

As a player at Arkansas Tech, Scott was a four-year letterman from 2003-07. He helped Tech to a 24-8 record from 2004-06, including a 10-2 overall mark and a national playoff appearance in 2004. Scott prepped at Crossett High School in his hometown of Crossett, Ark.

Scott earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Arkansas Tech in 2008. He also received his Master's degree from Arkansas Tech in 2010. He is married to the former Sarah Fancher and the couple has a son, Julian Thomas Scott, born on May 22, 2017.

Scott Sinclair

Director of Strength & Conditioning

Scott Sinclair was named Director of Strength and Conditioning on January 6, 2015, after serving two years in the same position at Marshall University.

Sinclair joined the Marshall program in January, 2013, working with both football and track and field programs and was part of a program that had three 10-win football seasons. He came to Marshall after nine years as an associate director of strength and conditioning at the University of Central Florida (UCF), where he worked with the football program along with baseball and track & field. With the football program, he was directly responsible for the speed and agility programs in addition to the program's administrative duties.

In 2012, he was awarded the highest honor in his field when he was certified as a master strength and conditioning coach (MSCC) at the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association's national conference. The title of master strength and conditioning coach represents professionalism, knowledge, experience, expertise as well as longevity in the field. He is also CPR/AED certified.

Prior to UCF, he served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Georgia Tech from 2001-03. While with the Yellow Jackets, he worked as the assistant director of player development for the Yellow Jackets' football squad. From 1999-2001, he worked in the Wake Forest strength and conditioning department.

A native of Rockingham, N.C., he earned his bachelor's degree in sports medicine from Guilford College in 1999. Sinclair, a member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association, received a master's degree in physical education from UCF in 2006. Sinclair and his wife, Farrah, have one son, Creed, and one daughter, Asher.

15 Georgia 31, Appalachian State 10

Sept. 2, 2017 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

ATHENS - A solid debut from true freshman quarterback Jake Fromm and a stout defensive effort led the 15th-ranked Georgia Bulldogs to a 31-10 season-opening victory in front of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium.

Fromm finished with an efficient 10-of-15 passing for 143 yards and one touchdown. He was aided by senior running backs Nick Chubb and Sony Michel, who combined for 183 yards and three scores.

The Georgia defense was equally impressive in its 2017 debut. The Bulldogs held the Mountaineers to just 94 yards in the second half and 284 total on the day. Junior defensive tackle Trenton Thompson and junior linebacker Roquan Smith led Georgia in tackles with six a piece, while J.R. Reed followed with five tackles, a sack and a forced fumble.

After an injury to starting quarterback Jacob Eason on the third possession of the game, Fromm took the reins of the Bulldog offense. The rookie led Georgia on a 4-play, 39-yard drive on its next possession, which was capped by Chubb's 1-yard touchdown run.

Fromm and senior wide receiver Javon Wims then connected on a heave to the end zone, resulting in a 34-yard touchdown pass to put the Bulldogs up 14-0 early in the second quarter.

In the second half, Georgia scored on its first two offensive possessions – one from a 23-yard field goal from Rodrigo Blankenship, followed by an 8-play, 66-yard drive that resulted in Chubb's second touchdown run of the game.

Appalachian State added two late scores with under six minutes remaining in the game, but Georgia improved to 94-27-3 all-time in season-opening games with the 31-10 victory. The Bulldogs have now won 18 of their last 21 openers and are 2-0 in opening games under Smart.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"That was a long time coming for our kids. They've worked really hard. We have a lot of respect for Appalachian State. Our team played really hard in the second half. Our kids were persistent. We talked about chopping wood and keeping it going...The punting flipped the field. Cameron (Nizialek) did a great job. The coverage did a great job. Rodrigo (Blankenship) kicked it in the end zone and was a weapon."

Sony Michel breaks free of an Appalachian State defender in the first quarter of Georgia's season-opening win. Michel finished with 87 yards and 1 TD.

Worth Noting…

• The veteran Bulldog defense held the Mountaineers scoreless and without a trip to the Red Zone in the first three quarters. The last time Georgia held an oppoent without a point in the first half was at South Carolina in 2016, resulting in a 28-14 win.

• With Nick Chubb's two touchdowns, he now has 31 career rushing touchdowns, which is sixth on the school's all-time list.

• Following a first quarter injury to startng QB Jacob Eason, Jake Fromm got his first collegiate action at the 6:30 mark in the opening period. He completed his first career pass, an 8-yarder to sophomore tight end Isaac Nauta. Fromm's 34-yard connection to Javon Wims in the second quarter marked Fromm's first touchdown pass of his career and Wim's second. The first for Wims came in the Liberty Bowl in 2016 on a 4-yard score from Eason.

• After making the switch from defense to offense in the offseason, sophomore Mecole Hardman grabbed his first career pass, an 8-yarder.

• True freshman Andrew Thomas started at right tackle. He is the first true freshman to start on the offensive line for Georgia since John Theus in 2012. Redshirt sophomore left guard Pat Allen, sophomore defenisve linemen Tyler Clark and sophomore defensive back J.R. Reed, who sat out a year after transferring from Tulsa in 2015, also made the first starts of their careers. A total of 16 true freshmen made their Bulldog debut, compared to last year's dozen.

• Georgia featured a new punter against the Mountaineers, graduate transfer Cameron Nizialek from Columbia University with a degree in economics. He punted five times for an average of 43.8 (long of 53). He also handled holding duties for the Bulldogs on field goals and PATs.

#15 Georgia 20, #24 Notre Dame 19

Sept. 9, 2017 • Notre Dame Stadium - South Bend, Ind.

SOUTH BEND, Ind. - A stifling defensive effort and an established ground attack by the 15th-ranked Georgia Bulldogs paved the path for a 20-19 victory over No. 24 Notre Dame in front of a crowd of 77,622 at Notre Dame Stadium.

With less than two minutes remaining, the Fighting Irish had an opportunity to put together a potential game-winning drive. However, the Bulldogs forced their second turnover to put the game away. On 1st-and-10 from the ND 36-yard line, senior outside linebacker Davin Bellamy sacked Irish quarterback Brandon Wimbush, whose fumble was then recovered by Lorenzo Carter. With Notre Dame unable to stop the clock, Georgia secured the victory by kneeling on three consecutive snaps.

Defensively, the Bulldogs held the Fighting Irish to 266 total yards (211 passing, 55 rushing) and limited ND to 3-for-17 on third down conversions. In his first career start, true freshman Jake Fromm went 16-for-29 for 144 yards and one touchdown. Georgia amassed 326 total yards of offense with 141 coming through the air and 185 yards on the ground.

After the Irish notched the first touchdown in the second quarter to go ahead 10-3, Georgia fought back with a 12-play, 62-yard subsuequent drive. From five yards out, Fromm floated the ball up to the back-corner pylon for Terry Godwin, who reeled in a spectacular one-handed catch.

The Bulldogs took their first lead of the game, 17-16, at the 4:34 mark in the third quarter when Sony Michel punched it in from six yards out on the ground. The drive featured a 40-yard scamper from freshman D'Andre Swift and two personal foul penalties by Notre Dame.

The seesaw battle continued as the Fighting Irish went up 19-17 at 11:08 in the fourth quarter, but Rodrigo Blankenship booted a 30-yard field goal to regain the lead with 3:34 left to play in the contest. Blankenship's third field goal decided the game.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"I didn't say anything to them (defense), Coach Tucker handled that. He had those guys playing hard. They played hard for him. They love him, and they played relentless. We've got to clean things up. We've got a good football team, but you talk about sloppy. Penalties, penalties, turnovers, turnovers. Can't do that. I'm just so happy for these fans. We brought 40,000-some fans up here, and these guys are awesome."

Terry Godwin's second-quarter TD catch -- originally ruled an incompletion but reversed after an official review -- was one of the 2017 season's individual highlights for Georgia.

Worth Noting…

• Georgia erased four deficits on the game, falling behind 3-0, 10-3 and 13-10, which increased to 16-10 in the second haf, and lastly 19-17 in the final quarter. In head coach Kirby Smart's first season, Georgia rallied back for five victories when they trailed in the fourth quarter, beating No. 22 North Carolina in Atlanta, on the road against Missouri and Kentucky, home versus Auburn and against TCU in the Liberty Bowl (Memphis, Tenn.). Notre Dame marked the sixth time in the Smart era the Bulldogs have a fourth-quarter comeback.

• With the 20-19 win, Georgia is now 2-0 all-time against Notre Dame. The only other meeting came in the 1981 Sugar Bowl in New Orleans, a 17-10 Georgia win. The Bulldogs are scheduled to play host to Notre Dame in Sanford Stadium on Sept. 21, 2019.

• Jake Fromm became only the seventh true freshman Bulldog quarterback to start a game, including just the second to do it on the road in his first career start as No. 15 Georgia beat #24 Notre Dame 20-19.

• In week one, Notre Dame tallied 422 yards on the ground in the win over Temple but tonight were held to just 55.

• Senior fullback Christian Payne notched his first career carries with two for 11 yards. Coming into the game, Payne had 12 career catches for 119 yards and one TD plus four tackles on special teams.

• A trio of Bulldogs made their first career starts in junior Kendall Baker, true freshman Jake Fromm, and true freshman Richard LeCounte.

#13 Georgia 42, Samford 14

Sept. 16, 2017 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

ATHENS - Senior running back Nick Chubb rushed for 131 yards and two scores, freshman quarterback Jake Fromm hit 8-of-13 passes for 165 through the air and the 13th-ranked Bulldogs from Athens moved to 3-0 with a 42-14 victory against Samford.

In front of a capacity crowd of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium, the Georgia defense was also impressive as it continued its strong start to the 2017 season. The Bulldogs, paced once again by Roquan Smith's six tackles and Lorenzo Carter's two sacks, held Samford to 249 yards of total offense.

Georgia scored on its second offensive possession of the game thanks to a 10-play, 87-yard drive that included just two pass plays — one coming on a 5-yard touchdown reception by Mecole Hardman. That TD was the first of Hardman's young career.

Up 7-0, the Georgia defense forced another three-and-out. The Bulldogs took advantage and scored in just 27 seconds. The two-play drive consisted of a 47-yard completion to Riley Ridley, followed by a 32-yard touchdown run from Chubb.

Fromm and Terry Godwin then connected on a 51-yard score — the longest of Godwin's career — to put the Bulldogs from Athens up 21-0 with 10:32 left in the first half. Georgia withstood a Samford surge the rest of the second quarter to take a 21-7 lead going into the locker room. Samford's only score came on a 10-play, 75-yard drive that resulted in a 9-yard TD pass from Devlin Hodges to TaDarryl Marshall.

The Bulldogs from Birmingham started the second half with the ball, looking to get back in the game. Instead, Hodges fumbled, Georgia recovered and then Chubb went 14 yards over left tackle on the next offensive possession to put UGA up 28-7.

On Samford's ensuing drive, Smith busted through the offensive front and made a big 4th down stop to set the Georgia offense up at the Samford 45-yard line. The Bulldogs capitalized as Godwin reeled in two consecutive grabs - a 32-yarder and a 9-yard TD - to put the home team ahead 35-7.

Georgia added its last score from D'Andre Swift on a nifty spin move and 11-yard dash as the Bulldogs went on to defeat Samford 42-14.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"We've made some improvements in some areas, but we've got more improving to do. It's frustrating with some of the decision making and the lost yardage plays. If we continue to improve, we can be a good football team... It's a good group to be around. They do what we ask them to do. They are continuing to grow."

Jake Fromm prepares to throw during Georgia's game vs. Samford. Fromm threw for 165 yards and three touchdowns in his second consecutive start.

Worth Noting…

• Senior TB Nick Chubb tallied 13 carries for 108 yards and a touchdown in the first half and for the game finished with 16 carries for 131 yards (8.2 avg) and 2 TDs. This was Chubb's 19th career time with 100 or more yards, which ranks second in school history (Herschel Walker, 28). Chubb scored on a 32-yard run at the 1:45 mark in the first quarter after freshman QB Jake Fromm opened a hole with a block on linebacker Dorsett Johnson. Chubb then went in from 14 yards in the third quarter. Chubb now has 33 career rushing touchdowns, which ties Garrison Hearst for fourth on the school's all-time list. This marks the 11th time in Chubb's career that he has had two rushing touchdowns in the same game.

• The Georgia offense tallied 42 points vs. Samford, marking the first time the team has notched 40 or more points in the Kirby Smart era and the highest point total under Smart since a 35-point outing vs. Louisiana last season.

• Georgia stalled Samford's final drive of the half as redshirt sophomore J.R. Reed blocked a 36-yard field goal. This is the first blocked field goal for the Bulldogs since Ray Drew blocked one versus Georgia Tech in 2014.

• The Georgia defense held Samford to 22 net rushing yards on 23 attempts, the lowest opponent rushing total under Kirby Smart and fewest yards allowed by Georgia since the Bulldogs held Missouri to 21 yards on 22 attempts in 2015. The Bulldogs currently rank second in the Southeastern Conference in rushing defense with 213 rushing yards allowed in the first three contests.

• Redshirt freshman RG Solomon Kindley made his first career start while junior LG Kendall Baker started for the second time (also got the nod at Notre Dame). On defense, sophomore DB Tyrique McGhee got his first career start.

#11 Georgia 31, #17 Mississippi State 3

Sept. 22, 2017 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

ATHENS - The 11th-ranked Georgia Bulldogs were impressive in nearly every phase of the game, as they took down No. 17 Mississippi State, 31-3, in front of a capacity crowd of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium.

It took just 10 seconds for Georgia to get on the board on its first offensive play. Nick Chubb took a handoff from Jake Fromm and tossed the ball back to Fromm, who found Terry Godwin open down the middle for a 59-yard score.

On its next possession, Georgia put the ball in the end zone once again. This time Chubb ran it in from seven yards out, capping off an 8-play, 78-yard drive. The maroon Bulldogs added a field goal in the second quarter and the two teams went to the half with Georgia leading 14-3.

The second half started much like the first for the host Bulldogs. This time, Chubb took a direct snap 28 yards on UGA's first possession to give the his team a 21-3 lead.

As was the case most of the night, Georgia's defense came up with a big play as Deandre Baker picked off a Nick Fitzgerald pass to set the Bulldogs up in State territory. Georgia converted on a 3rd-and-1 as Fromm hit sophomore tight end Isaac Nauta across the middle on a play-action pass for 41 yards and a score.

Dominick Sanders then picked off a pass on MSU's next possession to set up a 49-yard field goal by Rodrigo Blankenship. The Marietta native connected from that distance to give Georgia the final 31-3 advantage.

Fromm hit 9-of-12 passes for 201 yards and two touchdowns, while a balanced running attack fesatured a quartet of Bulldogs that included Chubb with 81 yards, D'Andre Swift with 69, Sony Michel with 32 and Brian Herrien with 21.

Defensively, redshirt sophomore defensive back J.R. Reed led Georgia with 10 tackles, while both Baker and Sanders recorded intercpetions – Georgia's first two of the year. On special teams, Blankenship continued his torrid pace on kickoffs with six touchbacks, and he added a 49-yard field goal.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"We came out and played with a lot of toughness. Our mantra all week was discipline, discipline, discipline. I thought we executed pretty well. We finally had a couple of turnovers. It's been a long time coming. I can't say enough about our defensive staff. They have worked really hard with the defensive group."

After snagging Georgia's first interception of the year on a Nick Fitzgerald pass, defensive back Deandre Baker sprinted down the field on a return of 22 yards.

Worth Noting…

• Mississippi State came into the game averaging 47.7 points/game (No. 1 in SEC/No. 9 nationally) and 493 yards/game and was held to just 3 points and 280 yards of total offense, the first time in the Dan Mullen era they've been held under 300 yards. In the first half, Georgia limited MSU to only 133 yards and a field goal. Also, the game ended with a stop by the UGA defense at the 2.

• Dominick Sanders now has 13 interceptions in his career, tying him for the top spot on the NCAA active list and with head coach Kirby Smart and three others for fifth in the school record books. Sanders returned the pick 15 yards. He now stands No. 2 on the school's all-time list with 311 return yards behind Hall of Famer Jake Scott (315).

• For the first time in the series, both teams entered the game ranked in the top 25. Georgia leads the all-time series 18-6 including 10 in a row in Athens. Saturday marked the biggest margin of victory over MSU since a 47-0 shutout here in 1997.

• Nick Chubb took a direct snap on a 3rd-and-1 situation during Georgia's first possession of the third quarter and ran 28 yards for his second touchdown of the game. Chubb now has 39 career touchdowns, which is third in UGA history, and is fourth with 35 career rushing touchdowns.

• Redshirt sophomore PK Rodrigo Blankenship extended his streak to 14 straight touchbacks on kickoffs dating back to his final kick of the Notre Dame victory. Opponents have just 99 kickoff return yards on five returns through a total of 22 kickoffs this season. In addition to four extra points, Blankenship also matched his longest field goal with a 49 yarder at the end of the third quarter to put Georgia up 31-3.

#7 Georgia 41, Tennessee 0

Sept. 30, 2017 • Neyland Stadium - Knoxville, Tenn.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - The seventh-ranked Georgia Bulldogs dominated the Tennessee Volunteers 41-0 at Neyland Stadium, recording their 800th win in school history in front of a sellout crowd of 102,455 and a national CBS audience.

The Georgia defense headlined the contest, holding the Volunteers scoreless with 142 total yards and just over 25 minutes on the field. The group forced four turnovers, including first career interceptions for junior J.R. Reed and sophomore Tyrique McGhee.

It took one play to end Tennessee's first offensive possession of the game with an interception from McGhee, positioning Blankenship for a 38-yard field goal and the 3-0 Georgia lead.

Midway through the first quarter, sophomore Mecole Hardman's 19-yard punt return began Georgia's 7-play, 54-yard scoring drive. Back-to-back first-down completions from Jake Fromm to both junior Terry Godwin and senior Javon Wims placed the Bulldogs in the red zone. After consecutive Georgia timeouts, Fromm connected with an airborne Wims in the end zone for the 10-0 lead.

In the second quarter, Georgia began an 87-yard march down the field on 11 plays. Chubb collected 42 yards in three carries to put Georgia in Tennessee territory. The offense converted on a pair of 3rd-and-7s, capped by Fromm's first career rushing touchdown from nine yards out.

The next Tennessee possession, Deandre Baker broke up the junior quarterback Quinten Dormandy's pass to freshman wide receiver Josh Palmer, deflecting the ball into the hands of Reed, who returned the interception to Tennessee's 26-yard line. Five plays later, Fromm ran four yards into the end zone to seal the 24-0 first half.

In the second half, Georgia tacked on a touchdown apiece in each quarter. A blocked punt from junior inside linebacker D'Andre Walker paved the way for a 6-play, 55-yard offensive drive. Fromm completed a 19-yard pass to Godwin, and senior tailback Sony Michel provided a 21-yard rushing touchdown on the next play for the 31-0 edge.

Tailbacks Brian Herrien and D'Andre Swift continued Georgia's rushing attack in the fourth quarter, using six plays for 26 yards for a one-yard Herrien touchdown. With 5:34 remaining in the game, kicker David Marvin sealed the 41-0 final on a 19-yard field goal.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"Coach (Mel) Tucker does a tremendous job with that defense. They play hard for Coach Tucker. During halftime, I didn't need to go over there and see the defensive players. They had it under control. They were doing the adjustments. They were doing a really nice job, so give credit where credit's due. The kids play hard. They bought in to playing with toughness and practicing that way."

Lorenzo Carter (7), Tyrique McGhee (26) and J.R. Reed combine to stop UT running back John Kelly in the third quarter of Georgia's first shutout in three years. The Bulldog defense dealt Tennessee its first shutout in 23 years, a span of 289 consecutive games.

• With the 41-0 win, Georgia notched its 800th all-time victory in this its 124th season and snapped the Vols scoring streak at 289 consecutive games, a mark that was the fourth longest active streak in the nation and the sixth longest streak in college football history. UT's scoring streak dated back to 1994 against Florida, a 31-0 loss. The Bulldogs rank 11th nationally in all-time victories. Georgia tightens the all-time series record to 23-22-2 in favor of UT as it dates back to 1899. It was Georgia's second largest margin of victory in the series and biggest in Knoxville. The only greater margin of victory was 44-0 in 1981 in Athens.

• Georgia posted a shutout for the first time since 2014 (34-0 win over Mizzou in Columbia) and ended UT's streak of scoring in 289 consecutive games (dates back to 1994). The Vols finished with just 142 yards of total offense. Coming in, the Vols were averaging 30.2 points a game and tailback John Kelly was averaging an SEC-best 158 yards a game.

• Sophomore DB Tyrique McGhee notched the first INT of his career on the first play from scrimmage, while junior J.R. Reed got his first as a Bulldog.

• Georgia tallied 294 rushing yards highlighted by senior Nick Chubb, as he finished with 109 yards. It marked his 20th career game of at least 100+ rushing yards, trailing only Herschel Walker (28) in school history. Chubb's career rushing total is 3,904 and that ranks second in school history behind Walker too.

• Sophomore WR Riley Ridley made his first career start. Dyshon Sims got the start at right guard (6th of his career) after Solomon Kindley injured an ankle vs. Mississippi State. Kindley came in on the third series of the game. Sophomore QB Jacob Eason returned to action in the fourth quarter having been out since the first quarter vs. Appalachian State.

#5 Georgia 45, Vanderbilt 14

Oct. 7, 2017 • Vanderbilt Stadium - Nashville, Tenn.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - The fifth-ranked Georgia Bulldogs used a prolific ground attack and a limiting defense to sink the Vanderbilt Commodores 45-14 at Vanderbilt Stadium.

The Bulldogs marched 83 yards to score on their first possession, needing just seven plays, all on the ground. Nick Chubb gained 69 of those yards, including the final 33 on scoring run with 7:53 left in the first quarter.

Georgia's second TD drive started after a short Vandy punt that was downed on the VU 45-yard line. On a 3rd-and-goal, Jake Fromm connected with D'Andre Swift out of the backfield for a 5-yard touchdown pass for a two-score cushion.

Georgia's longest drive of the first half lasted 8:12 and ended with a 14-yard scamper by Chubb that made it 21-0. Earlier in the drive on a 3rd-and-14, Fromm found Terry Godwin for a 23-yard gain that put Georgia on Vandy's side of the field.

Vanderbilt broke Georgia's defensive streak of scoreless quarters at seven when the Commodores punched in a rushing touchdown in the final minute of the first half to make it 21-7.

It took just four plays for Georgia to strike in its first possession of the second half. After a 20-yard gain by Michel, Fromm threw a dart to Godwin for a 47-yard touchdown, giving Georgia a 28-7 lead.

The Georgia defense forced a three-and-out of the Commodores on the next possession, giving the offense the ball again. The Bulldogs bested their last scoring drive by scoring on the third play this time. Michel burst through the middle and bolted 50 yards for a touchdown, which put him over the 100-yard rushing mark. The drive was all Michel as he carried it three times for 64 yards.

Redshirt sophomore place kicker Rodrigo Blankenship booted five touchbacks and added a 27-yard field goal in the 3rd quarter.

Georgia finished its scoring display in the fourth quarter with a 15-yard run by sophomore back Elijah Holyfield, who finished with 51 yards on seven carries.

The Bulldogs improved to 6-0 on the season for the first time since 2005 and moved to 3-0 in the conference. Vanderbilt dropped to 3-3 on the season and remains winless in the conference at 0-3.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"I was really proud of the offensive line today. They had a little bit of a chip on their shoulders from last year, because they didn't feel like they played their best game against that team. Obviously, they don't have some of the same guys back, but they have some of them – it was the same defensive lineman. We think our offensive line played physical and our backs ran hard. Jim (Chaney) called a good game and the offense did a nice job today."

Senior Nick Chubb breaks away for one of his two TDs against Vanderbilt. Chubb collected 138 of Georgia's then-season-high 423 rushing yards.

Worth Noting…

• Georgia amassed a season-high 423 rushing yards as senior running backs Nick Chubb and Sony Michel led the way with 138 and 150 yards, respectively. The 100-yard rushing game marked Chubb's 21st of his career and his two touchdowns moved him ahead of Todd Gurley and Lars Tate for career rushing touchdowns with 37.

• Defensively, junior inside linebacker Roquan Smith was the team's leading tackler for the fourth time this season as he collected seven total stops and added a pass breakup.

• When Vanderbilt scored the touchdown with 28 seconds left in the first half, it ended a streak by the Bulldog defense of 31 consecutive drives without giving up a TD. That stretch was the longest since 2006 when the Bulldogs defense also had a streak of 31 drives. Vanderbilt's TD was the first allowed by Georgia since the fourth quarter of the Samford game.

• Georgia went 4-for-4 (3 TDs, 1 FG) inside the Red Zone to remain perfect on the year now at 23-for-23 including 17 TDs and six field goals. Georgia is tied for first nationally in that category.

• This is the first time since the 2012 season that the Bulldogs have posted a six-game winning streak during a season. Georgia now leads the all-time series with the Commodores 56-20-2 dating back to 1893.

• Junior Juwan Taylor (ILB) made his first career start while sophomore Julian Rochester (DL) made his first of the year and seventh of his career. Redshirt freshman Solomon Kindley (RG) returned his starting role, it was his third of the year. Taylor becomes the 12th first-time starter this year.

#4 Georgia 53, Missouri 28

Oct. 14, 2017 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

ATHENS - A 696-yard explosion by the Georgia offense lifted the 4th-ranked and undefeated Bulldogs past Missouri in front of a capacity crowd of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium.

Freshman quarterback Jake Fromm finished with a career-high 326 yards through the air with two touchdowns passing and one on the ground. The Bulldog rookie hit 18-of-26 passes and led a balanced Georgia attack that included the quartet of D'Andre Swift (94 yards), Sony Michel (86 yards), Nick Chubb (70 yards) and Elijah Holyfield (48 yards).

Georgia struck first on its opening offensive possession. The Bulldogs marched 91 yards on seven plays, capped off by a Mecole Hardman 35-yard end-around that put the home team on the board first.

After a Missouri punt, the Tiger defense came up with a big play with Georgia backed up in its own territory. Cale Garrett picked off a Fromm pass at the Bulldogs' 26-yard line, and his 21-yard return gave his team a short path to tie the score two plays later.

The back-and-forth pace continued on Georgia's next drive. This time, Riley Ridley reeled in a 19-yard pass while he was falling out of bounds to put the Bulldogs back ahead 14-7. Missouri quarterback Drew Lock then connected on a 63-yard bomb with Emanuel Hall down the right sideline to again tie the score.

Michel had the answer for the Bulldogs on the next possession, racing 36-yards down field to give his team a 21-14 advantage early in the second quarter. Hall was not finished for the Tigers, however. The receiver used another 63-yard TD reception to tie it at 21-21.

Georgia scored the final 13 points of the first half thanks to two Rodrigo Blankenship field goals and a Fromm TD rush.

With a 34-21 lead, the Bulldogs' scoring continued in the second half. Blankenship connected on two more field goals — one coming after Missouri muffed a punt to set Georgia up deep in Tiger territory. Michel put the Bulldogs up 47-21 in the third quarter with a 16-yard TD run.

Georgia added another late score with a 59-yard pass from Fromm to Hardman in the fourth quarter, and the Bulldogs held on to stay undefeated.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"They have to embrace work if they want to be champions. We'll find out about this team this week. Some call it an off week, some call it a bye week, we call it a work week. The seniors carry that load. They drive that message home. It's their team and the young guys need to listen."

Mecole Hardman breaks free on a 59-yard touchdown catch & run during fourth-quarter action against Missouri. Hardman finished with 172 all-purpose yards and two scores.

Worth Noting…

• The Bulldogs' 7-0 record marks the team's best start since 2005 as Georgia improves to 6-1 all-time against Missouri.
• The 696 yards is the second-highest single game yardage total by a Georgia team in school history (record is 712 vs. Fla. Atlantic in 2012). Georgia tallied 31 points and 407 total yards on 45 plays in the opening half. This already was more yards than the Bulldogs registered in their wins over App State, #24 Notre Dame, #17 Mississippi State and Tennessee. The 53 points was the most by theBulldogs since a 55-9 win over Charleston Southern in 2014 and most in an SEC contest since a 63-31 win over Kentucky in 2014.
• The Bulldogs were 3-for-3 in the Red Zone in the first half and 6-for-6 in the game, staying a perfect 29-for-29 this season.
• Senior S Dominick Sanders snagged the 14th interception of his career in the second quarter and returned it 18 yards. Sanders now holds the school record for career INT return yardage with 329, passing Jake Scott who had 315 on a school record 16 picks. Sanders is tied on the NCAA active career list with his 14 picks.

#3 Georgia 42, Florida 7

Oct. 28, 2017 • EverBank Field - Jacksonville, Fla.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - The third-ranked Georgia Bulldogs overwhelmed the Florida Gators 42-7 at EverBank Field on Saturday, improving to 8-0 for just the eighth time in school history.

In the first quarter, the Bulldog defense held Florida to three-and-out on its first possession, setting up a four-play, 53-yard march into the Gator end zone a minute and a half into the game. Jake Fromm completed his first pass to D'Andre Swift for 39 yards, and Chubb combined for 14 yards on three carries, capped by a six-yard rushing touchdown.

On Florida's second drive, senior safety Dominick Sanders snagged his 15th career interception from a tipped Feleipe Franks pass to place Georgia on the Florida 29-yard line. Two plays later, an airborne senior wide receiver Javon Wims extended above Florida cornerback Marco Wilson to secure a 17-yard touchdown pass from Fromm for the 14-0 advantage.

On the first play of Georgia's third offensive possession, Sony Michel exploded for a 74-yard touchdown run, sealing a 21-0 Georgia margin that carried into the half.

In the third quarter, Georgia returned to the end zone with 6:43 remaining in the frame, as Michel finalized a five-yard, 76-yard drive with a 45-yard rushing touchdown. Fromm led the Bulldogs down the field with a 13-yard rush and an 18-yard connection to Swift.

Less than a minute later, Georgia defensive backs Tyrique McGhee and J.R. Reed, enveloped Franks on the Florida three-yard line, forcing a fumble that Reed scooped up for a three-yard touchdown return. After another defensive stop, Georgia closed the third quarter leading 35-0.

In the fourth period the Georgia defense held Florida to a three-play, 23-second drive, allowing the Bulldog offensive streak to continue. Following runs from sophomore tailback Brian Herrien and sophomore running back Elijah Holyfield, Fromm found Swift for a 27-yard pass, and Holyfield capped the 42-0 score with a 39-yard rushing touchdown.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"I thought we came out with a good demeanor and a good attitude. Had a great work week last week, and I thought the kids came out with a good focus. Their focus was on the task at hand, which was playing the best they could play, and not getting distracted by streaks or letting the past affect the present."

Sony Michel, with touchdown runs of 74 and 45 yards, needed just six carries to amass 137 rushing yards against the Gators.

Worth Noting…

• With the victory, Georgia improved to 8-0 for the first time since 2002. The Bulldogs also tabbed their fifth conference win, while Florida dropped to 3-4 on the season, and 3-3 in the SEC. The Bulldogs' 35-point advantage marks the most extensive margin of victory over the Gators since 1982.

• Georgia led 21-0 at the half, and it scored all 21 points in the first quarter and that was the most in the first quarter this year, and the most against the Gators in a first quarter going back to at least 1970. The previous high was 14 against Missouri, Miss. State and Samford. In the Red Zone, Georgia finished 2-for-2 as the Bulldogs are tied for the national lead, going a perfect 31-for-31 on the year.

• At the half, Florida had no points. It marked the first time in the series since 1988 that the Gators were shutout at the half.

• Michel's 74-yarder was the longest rushing TD by a Bulldog since Chubb went 83 yards against Alabama in 2015. Michel's 45-yarder made it 28-0 with 6:43 left in the third quarter. Michel has 3,637 all-purpose yards in his career which ranks seventh all-time.

• The Gators were 8-for-11 in fourth down conversions, and Georgia stopped them on a 4th-and-2 at the UGA4. It was the first Red Zone stop of the Gators this season as they were 15-for-15 at that point.

• Coming into the game, UF was tied for third nationally in allowing only four rushing TDs, Georgia had four today.

#1 Georgia 24, South Carolina 10

Nov. 4, 2017 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

ATHENS - Tailback Nick Chubb rushed for over 100 yards and freshman quarterback Jake Fromm hit 16-of-22 passes for 196 yards and two touchdowns to lead the No. 1 Georgia Bulldogs (CFP rankings) past South Carolina, 24-10, at Sanford Stadium.

Georgia improved to 9-0 this season and a perfect 6-0 against Southeastern Conference opponents. This marks the first time since 1982 that the Bulldogs have gone 9-0 and the seventh time in school history. The Gamecocks fell to 6-3 overall, 4-3 in the SEC.

The Bulldogs' defense, ranked third nationally in scoring defense, continued its impressive run and held South Carolina to just 43 yards rushing and 270 total on the day. Junior linebacker Roquan Smith led Georgia with nine tackles, while J.R. Reed and Malkom Parrish each recorded interceptions.

Georgia started the game with an onside kick, which South Carolina recovered at the 50-yard line. The Gamecocks could not take advantage as the Georgia defense held and USC missed a 46-yard field goal wide right.

After a fumble by Terry Godwin on Georgia's first offensive possession, the Bulldogs finally got on the board late in the first quarter. With Fromm lined up wide right and Sony Michel behind center, Michel took the snap and ran it in from eight yards out to put his team up 7-0 with 2:21 left in the opening quarter.

South Carolina had the answer on its first possession of the second quarter as Jake Bentley hit Bryan Edwards to cap off a 10-play, 75-yard drive and even the score at 7-7.

The Bulldogs answered on the next possession when Fromm connected with a tip-toeing Javon Wims on the sideline to put the home team up 14-7.

A 14-7 lead at the half ballooned to 21-7 thanks to a Fromm to Mecole Hardman 20-yard TD pass on the Bulldogs' first possession of the third quarter.

Both teams swapped field goals late in the game and the Bulldogs held on for the 24-10 win.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"The team has done a good job," head coach Kirby Smart said. "We'll have to continue to do that. The noise will get louder and the teams will get better and everyone will give us their best shot. It's about how we prepare, so we've got to focus on that first. It makes the game easier on Saturday if we make it difficult on them during the week."

Roquan Smith sacked Gamecock QB Jake Bentley 1.5 times and had a team-high nine tackles overall in leading the Georgia defense.

Worth Noting…

• This marks the first time since 1982 that the Bulldogs are 9-0 and the seventh time in school history. The Bulldogs have a 50-18-2 advantage in the series history over USC.

• Georgia came in third nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 11.9 points a game. Today, the Bulldogs held USC to 10 points.

• Coming into Saturday's matchup, Georgia had posted only four drives that measured 10 or more plays in its 38 touchdown drives. Today, the Bulldogs' first three scoring drives were all 10 or more plays and went 69, 75 and 75 yards. Georgia also had a season-long 15-play scoring drive that resulted in a 20-yard field goal by redshirt sophomore PK Rodrigo Blankenship. Seven different Bulldogs carried the ball and eight Georgia players caught passes.

• The Bulldogs have now outscored their opponents 97-17 in the first quarter this year.

• Opponents have forced 11 turnovers and turned them into 31 points while the Bulldogs have forced 14 turnovers and registered 48 points.

• Senior WR Terry Godwin caught his second pass of the game but fumbled on the USC 4 yard line in the first quarter. This broke the Bulldogs streak of a perfect 31 straight Red Zone conversions, which led the nation. The Gamecocks were forced to punt three plays later.

#10 Auburn 40, #1 Georgia 17

Nov. 11, 2017 • Jordan-Hare Stadium - Auburn, Ala.

AUBURN, Ala. - The No. 1 Georgia Bulldogs had their 9-game win streak snapped with a 40-17 loss to 10th-ranked Auburn Tigers in front of a crowd of 87,451 at Jordan-Hare Stadium and a CBS national audience.

The Bulldogs fell to 9-1 overall, 6-1 in the Southeastern Conference. Auburn (8-2, 6-1) used a heavy dose of Kerryon Johnson and a stifling defense to earn the victory. Johnson tallied 167 rushing yards, marking the first time a Georgia opponent had surpassed the 100-yard mark in a nation-best last 12 games.

Offensively, the Bulldogs finished with 230 yards of total offense, including 184 yards in the air. Freshman quarterback Jake Fromm went 13-of-28 for 184 yards and a touchdown, while senior wide receiver Javon Wims had a team-high 96 yards on three catches. The Auburn defense kept the Georgia rushing attack at bay as senior running back Nick Chubb had a team-high 27 yards.

In the game's opening possession, Georgia orchestrated an eight-play, 70-yard drive, capped by a direct snap to Chubb for a one-yard touchdown rush. In the drive, Fromm went 3-of-3 passing for 56 yards including a 28-yard pass to Wims on a 3rd down.

Auburn took its first lead 9-7 at the 12:08 mark of the second quarter on three consecutive Daniel Carlson field goals. Later in the quarter, the Tigers hit on a 42-yard Darius Slayton touchdown catch to go up 16-7, which stood until halftime.

Two third-quarter Auburn touchdowns strengthened the Tiger lead to 30-7, before the Bulldogs responded. Redshirt sophomore Rodrigo Blankenship booted a 47-yard field goal to make it 30-10 at the 5:23 mark in the third quarter.

After Auburn notched a field goal and another touchdown, Georgia put up a touchdown in the final minutes of the game. Sophomore wideout Riley Ridley caught a 14-yard pass from Fromm to end a 14-play, 74-yard drive and tally a final score of 40-17.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"They were more physical than us, on both sides. I always say in coaching, 'It's not as bad as it seems, and it's never as good as it seems.' We will watch the tape and there will be some plays that we missed, as well as some opportunities that we missed. At the end of the day, you have to credit Auburn. They came out and played more physical than we did tonight."

Solomon Kindley (66) celebrates as Nick Chubb (27) scores a one-yard touchdown run in the first quarter vs. Auburn. On Georgia's next possession, Chubb passed Auburn's Bo Jackson as fourth-leading all-time rusher in SEC history.

Worth Noting…

• Georgia now sees its all-time series lead with Auburn trimmed to 57-56-8. Today was the fourth time that the teams met when both were ranked in the top 10, and the Tigers have won each time (1971, 1983 & 2004). This was the first time that the Bulldogs were ranked higher in these top 10 matchups.

• In the first quarter on a six-yard run, Nick Chubb moved up to fourth in SEC history in career rushing yards, passing Auburn's Bo Jackson (4,303 yards). Chubb's current total is 4,318 yards, which is 239 yards away from Kevin Faulk's career total of 4,557 rushing yards at LSU for the No. 3 spot.

• Sophomore Mecole Hardman finished with 203 all-purpose yards, including 142 on kickoff returns, 43 on punt returns plus, 7 on the ground and 11 receiving. In the first half alone, he had 162 return yards. Coming into the game, he had 288 return yards (178 KOR, 110 PR) for the year.

• Senior SS Dominick Sanders made his team-leading 48th career start including his 28th consecutive start.

• True freshman tailback D'Andre Swift made his first career start while sophomore TE Charlie Woerner made his first start of the year and third of his career. Swift is the 14th first-time starter this year, including five true freshmen this season.

#7 Georgia 42, Kentucky 13

Nov. 18, 2017 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. - Senior running backs Nick Chubb and Sony Michel combined for 238 yards and five touchdowns to lead the seventh-ranked Georgia Bulldogs to a 42-13 win against Kentucky in the 2017 home finale at Sanford Stadium.

The Southeastern Conference Eastern Division champion Bulldogs improved to 10-1 overall and 7-1 in the SEC. This squad also became the first Georgia team to go undefeated in a season against the rest of the SEC East with a perfect 6-0 mark.

With Saturday's win on Senior Day, the current Georgia senior class improved to 38-12 in their careers, including an unblemished record at home this season.

Freshman quarterback Jake Fromm threw an interception on Georgia's first possession of the game, setting the Wildcats up deep in Bulldog territory. Kentucky capitalized on the opportunity with a 37-yard field goal from Austin MacGinnis.

The Bulldogs could get nothing going on their next offensive series, until Kentucky roughed punter Cameron Nizialek to give Georgia a fresh set of downs at its own 34-yard line. Fromm marched his team down the field on a 12-play, 75 yard drive, capped by an eight-yard touchdown rush by Chubb.

Blake Bone hauled in a 45-yard pass on UK's next possession to set up another field goal - this time a 35-yarder form MacGinnis to put the score at 7-6 in the Bulldogs' favor at the end of the first quarter.

Georgia's offense started clicking in the second quarter as the Bulldogs put together two scoring drives to take a 21-6 lead at the half. One score came through the air and the other on the ground when Javon Wims caught a 27-yard TD pass from Fromm and Michel bounced outside for a 37-yard TD rush.

Chubb was not done. The Bulldog senior surged over left tackle to start the fourth quarter and raced 55 yards down the field to put him over 1,000 yards for the season as Georgia went up 35-13.

Michel added another touchdown early in the fourth quarter and the Bulldogs left Sanford Stadium with a 42-13 victory.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"What a great way for these seniors to go out – winning the SEC East by going undefeated against the East," head coach Kirby Smart said. "Our seniors have given us tremendous leadership, and I'm happy and proud of them. Our seniors have set the standard and our young players have bought in. It helps to have such great leadership."

D'Andre Walker forced a Stephen Johnson fumble on this third-quarter sack during Georgia's win over Kentucky.

Worth Noting…

• Along with going undefeated in the SEC East, Georgia also became the first team to go undefeated in Sanford Stadium (6-0) in a season since 2012.

• Chubb became only the second Bulldog running back in history (Herschel Walker) to rush for 1,000 or more yards in three different seasons after finishing with 15 carries for 151 yards, including scoring runs of eight and a season-long 55 yards. His two touchdowns give him 45 TDs in his career (team-leading 12th of the year), moving him to second behind Herschel Walker (52). Chubb has now scored two touchdowns in a game 14 times and gone over the 100-yard mark 23 times in his career. At this point in the season, Chubb has rushed for 1,045 yards.

• Sony Michel finished with 87 yards on 12 carries with three scores. He stands tied for fifth on Georgia's all-time all-purpose yards with 3,834 yards. Michel's first scoring run came at the end of a 12-play, 75-yard drive that lasted 6:21, which is Georgia's longest TD drive of the year.

• The Georgia defense held Kentucky to just six points on two field goals and 140 yards (53 on the ground) in the first half and UK added only a touchdown in the second half and finished with 262 yards of total offense. UK came in averaging 27.9 points/game and 361 yards of total offense. The Wildcats were 3-for-12 (25%) on third downs.

#7 Georgia 38, Georgia Tech 7

Nov. 25, 2017 • Bobby Dodd Stadium - Atlanta, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. - The seventh-ranked Georgia Bulldogs overmatched the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets 38-7 in the battle for the Governor's Cup Trophy at Bobby Dodd Stadium.

After forcing a Yellow Jacket punt on the game's opening possession, the Bulldogs assembled a 12-play, 61-yard touchdown drive. Nick Chubb scored from one yard out, while Sony Michel compiled 25 yards on the drive including a critical 3rd down pickup where he shed two tackles.

Georgia Tech put together a 12-play, 56-yard drive that started in the first quarter and spilled into the second quarter, but boiled over with a failed fourth-down attempt. The Bulldogs turned it into a touchdown quickly with six-straight run plays for 44 yards and then a 21-yard pass from Jake Fromm to Javon Wims for the score.

The Yellow Jackets got on the scoreboard in the final minute of the first half on a 10-yard touchdown pass from TaQuan Marshall to Ricky Jeune. The Bulldogs offense moved efficiently with 42 seconds left setting up a Rodrigo Blankenship 37-yard field goal to head into the half with a 17-7 lead.

At the half, Fromm was 8-for-10 for 91 yards, while Wims had four catches for 61 yards and his team-leading 6th receiving touchdown of the year. Michel tallied 67 yards on the ground on eight carries to move up to third all-time in rushing yards behind Chubb.

Georgia scored on three of its five possessions in the second half to seal the victory. The only non-score drives consisted of a punt and the final possession in which Georgia controlled the ball for 7:19 leaving GT the ball with only seven seconds left.

Michel tallied the first touchdown on a four-yard run after a 39-yard catch by sophomore receiver Mecole Hardman set it up. In the subsequent drive, Georgia marched down the field 67 yards, all but five yards on the ground. D'Andre Swift highlighted the last two plays with a 31-yard run on a 3rd-and-9 and an over-the-top 2-yard score.

The final score came on three plays as Fromm connected with junior college transfer receiver Ahkil Crumpton for a 78-yard touchdown strike, Georgia's longest of the season.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"They've got a good football team. It's a very hard offense to prepare for. Our kids took the challenge head-on and did a good job preparing for it. Thought we controlled the ball offensively in the second half. Our kids have played really hard. They've gotten better throughout the year. They've bought into what we're trying to do as a program. We're really excited about where we are, and we've got a challenge next week."

Natrez Patrick (6) and Roquan Smith led a defensive effort that limited Georgia Tech to nearly half of its per-game rushing output.

• With today's 38-7 victory, seventh-ranked Georgia completes the regular season with a 11-1 record, marking the 10th team in school history to win at least 11 games in a season and the first since 2012. The seniors improves-their record to 39-12. Also, Georgia has reclaimed the Governor's Cup Trophy and extended its advantage in the series to 66-39-5. Georgia's 38 points was the most against Tech since 2013 (41-34 OT win).

• The Bulldogs came in ranked fourth nationally in Soring Defense, allowing only 14.4 points a game and holding Tech's option attack to just seven points and 226 total yards (188 rushing). Tech was averaging 30.2 points/game and 319.3 rushing yards a game.

• Georgia tallied 38 points and 471 yards of total offense (247-rushing, 224-passing) on 60 plays. The Bulldogs came in today averaging 35.3 points a game including leading the nation in Red Zone Offense, going 40-for-41 with 30 touchdowns. Against Tech, Georgia went 4-for-4 in the Red Zone (3 TDs, 1 FG).

• Senior Sony Michel tallied 85 rushing yards on 13 attempts to move up to third place in school history for career rushing yards with 3,314, trailing only Herschel Walker (5,259) and Chubb (4,522). Michel had a four-yard TD to make it 24-7 with 9:08 left in the third to cap a six play, 77-yard drive.

• With his first touchback on the opening kickoff, redshirt sophomore Rodrigo Blankenship set a school record for touchbacks in a season as that was his 52nd, passing the mark of Hall of Famer Kevin Butler who had 51 during the 1981 season. Blankenship had six kickoffs with four touchbacks against Tech.

2017 SEC Championship Game

Dec. 2, 2017 • Mercedes-Benz Stadium - Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA - The sixth-ranked Georgia Bulldogs claimed their 13th SEC Championship in program history with a 28-7 victory over the second-ranked Auburn Tigers at Mercedez-Benz Stadium in front of a national CBS audience and capacity crowd of 76,534.

Georgia claimed the 2017 SEC title in the second year of the Kirby Smart era, improving to 12-1 on the season and 8-1 in the conference. Auburn fell to 10-3, and 7-2 in the SEC. Georgia's 13 SEC titles is tied for second most in league history as Alabama has 26 and Tennessee also has 13.

The Georgia defense held Auburn scoreless after just one touchdown in the Tigers' opening drive. Auburn was blanked for the remainder of the game, with Roquan Smith, the SEC Championship MVP, collecting a career-high 13 stops (10 solo) with one sack, two tackles for lost yardage and two fumble recoveries.

The Tigers raced out to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter. With 13:04 remaining in the second quarter, Davin Bellamy disrupted the Auburn offense on the 16-yard line, forcing the ball out of Jarrett Stidham's hands. Smith recovered the fumble and set up a 7-play, 83-yard Georgia scoring drive.

Poised on the Auburn 2-yard line, Jake Fromm faked a pitch and connected with Isaac Nauta in the end zone to tie the game at seven. Rodrigo Blakenship chipped in a 27-yard field goal to give the Bulldogs their first lead at 10-7 heading into halftime.

In the third quarter, the Georgia defense interrupted a second Auburn drive in the red zone, when DaQuan Hawkins-Muckle extended to block a Daniel Carlson 31-yard field goal attempt. The Bulldogs drove 62 yards on the drive that followed, capped off by a Blakenship 35-yard field goal to make it 13-7.

Lorenzo Carter snuffed Auburn's next drive at its own 47 yard-line, knocking the ball out of Kerryon Johnson's grasp. Smith picked it up and returned it to Auburn's 39-yard line. It took four plays for Georgia's second touchdown of the night: a Fromm-to-Terry Godwin connection for six. This duo followed for a successful two-point conversion on the next play.

With 10 minutes left, D'Andre Swift exploded for a 64-yard touchdown dash to seal the 28-7 win.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"The seniors mean everything to this program. The leadership that he (Nick Chubb) and Sony Michel and the rest of these seniors have provided for us is impeccable. I mean this is an awesome win for our program, our university and a lot of people in the state of Georgia."

SEC Championship Game MVP Roquan Smith leads the celebration of Georgia's 13th all-time league title.

• Georgia claimed its 13th SEC title in school history with a 28-7 win over No. 2 Auburn. The 13 SEC titles ranks tied for second most in league history as Alabama has 26 and UT also has 13.

• With the win, Georgia extends its edge in the series to 58-56-8 in the Deep South's oldest rivalry in this the 122nd all-time meeting. This was Georgia's first win when both teams are ranked top 10. In the first meeting this year, Georgia was held to 17 points, 230 yards of total offense including 46 rushing yards, all season-lows. Today, Georgia scored 28 points and had 421 yards of total offense.

• Senior Nick Chubb had 77 rushing yards on 13 carries while senior Sony Michel had 45 yards on seven carries. Chubb moved up to second in SEC history with 4,599 yards, trailing only Herschel Walker (5,259). Chubb and Michel already rank No. 2 and 3 in school history for rushing yards. Michel has 3,359 for his career.

• Junior DT DaQuan Hawkins-Muckle blocked a Tiger 31-yard field goal attempt with 8:13 left in the third quarter and Georgia leading 10-7. It was the third by a Bulldog in an SEC Championship game, joining Sean Jones (2003 vs. LSU) and Cornelius Washington (2012 vs. Alabama). There have only been four in the history of the game.

• Senior strong safety Dominick Sanders made his 51st career start which ranks third in school history for non-kickers, trailing only QBs David Greene (52 from 2001-04) and Aaron Murray (52 from 2010-13).

• On offense, sophomore Elijah Holfyfield and freshman Trey Blount made their first career starts while junior Jayson Stanley made his first of the year and sixth of his career.

College Football Playoff - Semifinal Game

Jan. 1, 2018 • Rose Bowl Stadium - Pasadena, Calif.

PASADENA, Calif. - A blocked field goal opened the door for a game-winning score in the Georgia Bulldogs' 54-48 double overtime Rose Bowl victory against the No. 2-seeded Oklahoma Sooners at the Rose Bowl Stadium.

The Oklahoma offense went first in the second overtime and got to the 10-yard line for a 27-yard field goal attempt. The outstretched hand of senior linebacker Lorenzo Carter blocked the field goal to set the stage for a game-winning score. The second play of Georgia's series was the game-winner as senior running back Sony Michel reached the corner and sprinted 27 yards into the end zone.

Georgia trailed 31-17 at halftime as the game featured both teams with over 250 total yards of offense and six total touchdowns. Redshirt sophomore placekicker Rodrigo Blankenship drilled a Rose Bowl record 55-yard field goal as time expired in the first half.

The Bulldog defense forced Oklahoma to punt on its first possession of the second half. Nick Chubb then escaped from three would-be tacklers for a 50-yard touchdown, bringing Georgia within a single score. Sophomore return specialist Mecole Hardman helped set up the favorable field position with a 21-yard punt return.

The equalizer at 31 came in the last minute of the third quarter, when Michel took a 3rd-and-7 handoff 38 yards for his third touchdown of the game. On Oklahoma's next possession, Sanders intercepted an overthrow by Baker Mayfield and returned it 39 yards to the four-yard line. Two plays later, Georgia obtained its first lead of the game with a four-yard pass and catch from Jake Fromm to Javon Wims.

Next it was Oklahoma's turn to tie it as Mayfield found Dimitri Flowers in the back of the end zone for an 11-yard touchdown pass, tying the score at 38 with 8:47 left in regulation. The Sooners then recaptured the lead shortly after on a 46-yard scoop-and-score off a Michel fumble.

His team trailing 45-38, Fromm steered the Bulldogs to the game-tying touchdown in a drive that spanned seven plays, 59 yards and 2:27. On the drive, Fromm was 3-for-4 passing for 48 yards. A defensive pass interference in the end zone put Georgia at the 2-yard line, from where Chubb crossed the goal line on a direct snap play.

Georgia forced two Oklahoma punts in the waning minutes of the fourth quarter to send the game into extra time and eventually outlasting the Sooners.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"Our kids are so resilient. They never stopped chopping wood. They kept fighting. They believed. There were offensive players affecting defensive players in the locker room at halftime and they kept fighting. We didn't play the way we were capable of, but the best news is we get a chance to play again. So I'm really proud of the fight, the resiliency of our seniors and our fan base."

Sony Michel scores the last of his four touchdowns on a 27-yard run in the second overtime period, sending Georgia to the national championship game.

Worth Noting…

• With its 54-48 victory, Georgia (13-1) tied a school record with its 13th win of the season (2002 team went 13-1). The Bulldogs are now 8-5 overall in overtime including 3-1 in bowl games.

• Sony Michel's 75-yard rushing TD was the longest in Georgia bowl history, eclipsing Kent Lawrence's 74-yarder in the 1966 Cotton Bowl and Robert Edwards 74-yarder in the 2000 Outback Bowl. Also on that TD run, Michel went over 1,000 yards for the season and marked the second time in his career he has done that. Michel and Chubb became the first Bulldog duo to register 1,000-rushing yards in the same season.

• Michel's 75-yarder was the longest TD run of the year and longest by a Bulldog for a score since Nick Chubb went 83 yards against Alabama in 2015.

• Redshirt sophomore Rodrigo Blankenship set a Georgia bowl record with a career-best 55-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. It was also the longest field goal in Rose Bowl history.

No. 4 Alabama 26, No. 3 Georgia 23 (OT)

Jan. 8, 2018 • Mercedes-Benz Stadium - Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA, Ga. – A second-half surge, capped by a 41-yard touchdown in overtime, lifted Alabama over Georgia in the National Championship Game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium.

After 20 points from the Tide offense in the second half, a wide 36-yard field goal attempt from Alabama kicker Andy Pappanastos in the final seconds of regulation sent the game into Georgia's second straight overtime contest of the College Football Playoff.

In extra period, kicker Rodrigo Blankenship, who was perfect in three field-goal attempts on the game, drilled a 51-yarder for the 23-20 Georgia lead. Junior Jonathan Ledbetter and senior Davin Bellamy then sacked Alabama quarterback Tua Tagovailoa for a loss of 16 yards, but on the next play, the freshman hauled a 41-yard pass to a DeVonta Smith in the end zone to seal the Tide's national championship.

The Bulldogs held Alabama scoreless in the first half, going into intermission with a 13-0 advantage.

Late in the first quarter, Sony Michel converted two key third-down plays to extend a Georgia drive. On 3rd-and-20, Michel maneuvered the edge of the field, sprinting 26 yards down the sideline, placing Georgia on the Alabama 26-yard line. Blankenship capped the 14-play, 55-yard drive at the beginning of the second quarter with a 41-yard field goal, and Georgia claimed the 3-0 lead.

Another Alabama three-and-out returned the ball to the Georgia offense, and Fromm directed a 13-play, 70-yard scoring drive. The freshman used four different Georgia receivers for a combined 54 receiving yards, completing 4-of-7 passes. A 27-yard field goal from Blankenship provided the 6-0 Bulldog edge.

With 1:19 remaining in the half, the Georgia defense forced Alabama to punt, setting up a Fromm-directed 9-play, 69-yard drive. Michel took the direct snap with seven seconds left and handed the ball to Hardman, who rushed into the end zone for the 1-yard touchdown, the second of his career.

In the third quarter, Alabama struck first, completing a 7-play, 56-yard drive with a 6-yard touchdown pass from Tagovailoa to Henry Ruggs III, but Georgia responded on the following possession. At the 6:52 mark in the third quarter, Fromm tossed a career-high 80-yard bomb to Hardman downfield, who shook off an Alabama defender to reach the end zone for the 20-7 Georgia edge.

Alabama pieced together a pair of field goals from Pappanastos to cut into the Georgia lead. On 4th-and-4, Tagovailoa found wide receiver Calvin Ridley in the middle of the end zone, followed by a Pappanastos kick, to knot the game at 20, and eventually send the game into overtime.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"This team's not going anywhere. The inches are everywhere. The inches that it takes to be a champion, they're everywhere. They're in everything. They're all over the place, and we've got to get more inches."

Mecole Hardman scores the first of his two touchdowns in the CFP Championship game, a 1-yard dash just before halftime that gave Georgia a 12-0 lead at the time.

• The 13 wins ties the school record for most wins in a season (2002 SEC Championship team went 13-1). For the second straight game, Georgia went to overtime. With tonight's loss, Georgia is now 8-6 in overtime including 3-3 in neutral sites.

• Fromm's 80-yard touchdown pass to Mecole Hardman was part of a four play, season-high 93-yard drive in 1:56. It was the longest by the Bulldogs since a record 98-yarder in 2013 by Aaron Murray to Reggie Davis against North Texas.

• For the fourth time this season, Georgia blanked a team in the first half as Alabama joined Florida, Tennessee and App. State without points. Also for the ninth time this season, Georgia's opponent failed to score in the first quarter.

• Bulldog junior WLB Roquan Smith tied his career-high with 13 tackles and ends the season with a team-best 137 tackles, marking his second-straight season with 100 or more tackles.

• The Bulldogs came in today averaging 36.3 points a game including ranking 4th in the nation in Red Zone Offense, going 51-for-53 with 38 touchdowns. Georgia went 2-for-2 in the Red Zone with one TD and one Field Goal.

• Senior strong safety Dominick Sanders made his school record-tying 53rd career start, the most-ever for a non-kicker and ties him with PK Blair Walsh, who started 53 games from 2008-11.

UGA'S MASCOT TRADITION

Although the University of Georgia is now known as the home of Uga, the pure white English bulldog, several mascots led the Red and Black before Frank W. Seiler provided the current lineage beginning in 1956.

The Goat -- Feb. 22, 1892

Georgia's mascot for its first football game against Auburn, February 22, 1892 in Atlanta, Ga., was a goat. Old newspaper clippings indicate that the goat wore a black coat with red U.G. letters on each side. He also had on a hat with ribbons all down his high horns, and the Auburn fans yelled throughout the game "shoot the billy-goat."

Trilby, 1894

Trilby with owner Charles H. Black

In 1894, Georgia's mascot was a solid white female bull terrier owned by a student, Charles H. Black, Sr., of Atlanta. Trilby, named after a novel by George Du Maurier, served as the campus pet and mascot for the Chi Phi fraternity.

Disputing stories speculate the origin of the Bulldog nickname, and the story of Trilby provides yet another opinion: "...every day Trilby took herself down to old Herty field with her master for football practice. She ran signals with the best of them and became an accustomed figure on the athletic field...One morning, Trilby failed to appear for her breakfast and after a frantic search she was finally discovered proudly washing the faces of her newborn family, 13 white puppies...Late one dusky fall afternoon, Trilby appeared for a grid workout and scampering after her came her 13 children, darting through players' legs, barking and pace. 'Well,' suggested one of the players, 'Trilby has brought us a name, Bulldogs.' ...Every time a game was played on Herty Field, the boys would floss Trilby and her 13 offerings up with red and black ribbons, and so attired they have gone down in history as perhaps the first 'sponsors' in southern football." —Ruth Stanton Cogill (Atlanta newspaper)

"After the rein of Trilby and her family, chaos developed in the mascot department at the university. Many games had several, depending on which alumnus got his dog to the game first." —AJC, Nov. 18, 1962

Sanford Stadium Graves

Mr. Angel, 1944-46

Mr. Angel, a brindle and white colored English Bulldog owned by Eastman,Ga.,-physician, Warren Coleman, filled a void during some of the war years.

There was no mascot roaming the sidelines and Coleman took Mr. Angel to games and stood with him on the sidelines. His picture on the field and with the Georgia cheerleaders appears in the 1945 and '46 UGA annual, the Pandora.

Butch, 1947-50

Butch was a brindled English bulldog owned by Mabry Smith of Warner Robins, Ga. He was spotted by students who were attending the 1946 Georgia-Georgia Tech game in Athens, and the canine appeared to be suited for the mascot position. Smith agreed to loan Butch to the University during the football season along with a female puppy named Tuffy. The female died of a heart attack following the Georgia-Kentucky game in 1948, but Butch continued to serve. Spending the off-season at Smith's home in Warner Robins, Butch was tragically shot in the summer of 1951 by a policeman after the dog escaped from his pen and was found roaming the streets. Butch is buried behind Smith's business along Watson Boulevard.

In 2004 plans for a marker honoring Butch in his hometown were put into motion by longtime Warner Robins resident Guy Fussell.

Mike, 1951-55

Butch was succeeded by Mike, another brindled English bulldog, owned by C. L. Fain. Mike lived in the field house on campus and died of natural canine causes in 1955. As his master's thesis, Gene Owens of Fort Worth, Texas, cast the bronze statue of Mike which is located at the entrance of Memorial Hall

Uga Takes the Field

In the last 100 years of intercollegiate football, Georgia's Uga has established himself as the nation's most well-known mascot. The line of pure white English bulldogs, which epitomizes everything Georgia, has been owned by the Frank W. "Sonny" Seiler family of Savannah, Ga., since Uga I first graced the campus in 1956.

Through the years, Uga has been defined by his spiked collar, a symbol of the position which he holds. He was given his name, an abbreviation for the university, by William Young of Columbus, a law school classmate of Seiler. Each of the Uga mascots is awarded a varsity letter in the form of a plaque, identical to those presented to all Bulldog athletes who letter in their respective sports.

As determined and published by the Pittsburgh Press, the University of Georgia is the only major college that actually buries its mascots within the confines of the stadium. Ugas I-IX are buried in marble vaults near the main gate in the embankment of the South stands. Epitaphs to the dogs are inscribed in bronze, and before each home game, flowers are placed on their graves. The memorial plot attracts hundreds of fans and visitors each year.

For the past 20 years, Uga's jerseys have been custom-made at the beginning of each season from the same material used for the players' jerseys. Old jerseys are destroyed.

Uga's on-field home is a permanent air conditioned doghouse located next to the cheerleader's platform, providing comfort in the heat of August and September. The custom-made doghouse is a gift from the Bahamian Bulldog Club of Nassau, Bahamas, through the courtesy of Fred Hazlewood.

Uga I

The current Uga line of solid white English bulldogs began with Uga I, Hood's Ole Dan, born Dec. 2, 1955, in Columbus. Uga I was given to Cecelia Seiler by a friend, Frank Heard of Columbus and appeared in his first game in the 1956 home opener. As recalled by Sonny Seiler, "...his original red jerseys were made by Cecelia. It was necessary to take up children's t-shirts to fit the dog in the right places. There is no telling how many of these jersey's he wore out. During the early games in Athens, especially the hot ones before he had a dog house, the large green hedges that surround Sanford Stadium afford welcomed shade in the heat of battle. Unfortunately, the hedges constantly tore these jerseys and new ones had to be made."

"Ole Dan's Uga"
Record: 42-16-3

Uga I was succeeded by his son, Ole Dan's Uga at an impressive pregame ceremony at Homecoming, 1966. With the Georgia Redcoat Band lining the field, Uga II was led to the center of the field by Charles Seiler, son of Sonny and Cecelia. The student body erupted in a cheer that was picked up by the entire stadium, ''Damn Good Dog!''

Uga II had an impressive reign as he watched Georgia participate in five bowl games and win two SEC championships.

Uga III

Uga III, 1972-80
"Seiler's Uga Three"
Record: 71-32-2

Born Oct. 9, 1972, Seiler's Uga III was present for Georgia football's finest moment as Herschel Walker took the Bulldogs to the 1980 national championship. He led Georgia to six bowl games in nine years and closed out his career in ultimate fashion winning the 1980 NCAA championship. Uga III retired on the 100th football game of his career, marking the season-opener of the 1981 season. He died just weeks later.

Uga IV

Uga IV, 1981-89
"Seiler's Uga Four"
Record: 77-27-4

Uga IV was perhaps the most active of all the Georgia mascots, standing as the only one to attend a bowl game every year of his service (1981-89). He took over for Uga III in the 1981 season opener and over the next nine seasons, led Georgia to a record of 77-27-4. The highlight of his career was his personal appearance at the Heisman Trophy Banquet with Herschel Walker in New York on December 9, 1982. Uga IV was escorted through thebanquet hall by the president of the Downtown Athletic Club, and was earlier photographed with Herschel by photographers from across the country. The proud Bulldog donned his game jersey for the outing and added the formal touch of a collar and black tie. Uga IV was the first mascot invited to the Heisman Banquet.Declared ''Dog of the Decade'' by Vince Dooley in 1991, Uga IV was posthumously awarded the highest honor available to University of Georgia mascots — the Georgia varsity letter.

Otto

Otto, 1986
"The Substitute"
Record: 3-1

Although Otto was not pure white like his father, he was called upon to fill in for his younger brother, Uga IV, who injured ligaments in his left hind knee when jumping off a hotel bed before the Vanderbilt contest. In four games during the 1986 season, Otto led the team to a 3-1 record and also co-mascotted (along with Uga IV), a victory over instate rival Georgia Tech. After winning his first two games, fans cheered, "2-and-0 with Otto!" Dooley, serving as head coach during Otto's brief tenure, favored the substitute the most. "I have always had a great affection for those who came off the bench and performed, and he did that and had a great time," Dooley said. Otto is buried in the Seiler's backyard.

Uga V, 1990-99
"UGA IV's Magillicuddy II"
Record: 65-39-1

In the first game of 1990, Uga V officially began his reign as the Georgia mascot, taking over from his father Uga IV, who passed away at his home in Savannah on Feb. 26, 1990. Uga V was the last pup sired by Uga IV and was born on March 6, 1990.

Named in honor of one of the greatest Bulldogs, Dan Magill, former Assistant Athletic Director for Public Relations and longtime tennis coach and sports information director. Surprisingly, the Seiler family became aware that Uga IV's mate was expecting only 10 days before the litter was due. This notice came a week after Uga IV had passed away at his home in Savannah from kidney failure. There were only three pups in the litter and the last one born on March 6 was the only solid white male.

Uga V had been perhaps the most well known of all the Bulldog mascots, highlighted by his appearance on the cover of the April 28, 1997, Sports Illustrated which declared him the nation's best college mascot. Rocketed to stardom, he also appeared in Clint Eastwood's "Midnight In The Garden Of Good And Evil" — filmed in his hometown of Savannah, Ga. He died on Nov. 22, 1999, just over two months after his retirement.

Uga VI

Uga VI, 1999-2008
"Uga V's Whatchagot Loran"
Record: 87-27

In 2007, Uga VI became the winningest mascot in school history and owned a record of 87-27. The fall of 2008 would have been his 10th season after Uga VI reigned over more games than any other mascot with 114. He died on June 27, 2008. In his last game, the Bulldogs defeated Hawai'i 41-10 in the 2008 Sugar Bowl in New Orleans.

The pregame passing of the bone ceremony from Uga V to his heftier and friskier son, Whatchagot Loran, took place at the 1999 Georgia-South Carolina contest. Only a year old at his coronation, Uga VI stood as the biggest of all the Uga mascots weighing in at 65 pounds — 20 pounds heavier than his father.

His first season climaxed in a magnificent come from behind victory over Purdue at the Outback Bowl in Tampa. The 2000 season ended in Hawaii, but due to the distance and a quarantine rule, Uga VI missed the O'ahu Bowl, marking the first time the Georgia mascot had missed the postseason game since the 1969 Sun Bowl.

Alongside first-year head coach Mark Richt, Uga VI saw his third consecutive 8-4 season, which included a 26-24 win at then-No. 6 Tennessee for the Bulldogs' first win in Knoxville since 1980.

Uga VI and Georgia experienced their best run in two decades during the 2002-05 seasons. That stretch included 44 wins, a pair of SEC titles and appearances in the Sugar, Capital One and Outback Bowls.

In 2007, Uga VI passed Uga IV (77-24-4) for the most wins of any bulldog in school history.

Uga VII, 2008-2009
"Loran's Best"
Record: 16-7

The seventh in the Uga line of Georgia mascots was introduced to the Georgia people on Aug. 30, 2008, during pre-game ceremonies of the Bulldogs' season opener against Georgia Southern.

"Loran's Best" officially became "Uga VII," when he was introduced for the first time to the Sanford Stadium crowd prior to kickoff of the Georgia vs. Georgia Southern game. He was escorted onto the field by members of the Frank W. "Sonny" Seiler family of Savannah who have owned the continuous line of mascots since Uga I took up the mantle in 1956.

Uga VII passed away unexpectedly on Nov. 19 of heart-related causes. It was the Thursday before the final home game of the 2009 season and the Bulldogs did not have a live mascot at the game. Instead, a wreath was placed on UGA VII's doghouse, and the players wore a special UGA VII decal on their helmets to remember him. "Russ," the five-year-old half brother of Uga VII, served as the Bulldog mascot for the Georgia Tech game in Atlanta and helped his squad to a 30-24 win. He was the first substitute mascot since "Otto" in 1986.

Uga VIII, 2010
"Big Bad Bruce"
Record: 4-2

Uga VIII

Born Sept. 12, 2009 in Savannah, Ga., Uga VIII is the grandson of Uga VI. He carried on the tradition of more than 60 years of all-white bulldogs bred by Frank "Sonny" Seiler and family.

Uga VIII was named in honor of Dr. Bruce Hollett from the University's School of Veterinary Medicine. Dr. Hollett has been a longtime caregiver for the famed line of English bulldogs. UGA VIII served six games in the 2010 season before he became ill and missed the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. He passed away with lymphoma on February 4, 2011.

("Russ", 2009-2012: 16-9)
Record: 44-19

Uga IX

"Uga IX, formerly "Russ," the half-brother of Uga VII, served as interim Bulldog mascot for a total of 25 games. He worked nine games during the 2009 and 2010 seasons after Uga VII and VIII passed away. He roamed the sidelines at all 14 games during the 2011 season. He then served for two wins at the beginning of the 2012 season before being promoted as Uga IX prior to the Florida Atlantic game on Sept. 15, 2012. His time as mascot included the 2011 and 2012 SEC Eastern Division championships, three road wins at Georgia Tech, a victory over Texas A&M in the 2009 Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La., and a win over Nebraska in the 2013 Capital One Bowl. He was the first substitute mascot since "Otto" in 1986.

Epitaph: He endeared himself to the Georgia people. His dedication to duty when called upon was exemplary.

Uga X, 2015-Present
"Que"
Record: 31-10

Uga IX officially retired as the Bulldogs' mascot at the end of the 2014 season. After a three-month "audition" in that role, his grandson "Que" was formally crowned as his successor in a collaring ceremony prior to the Georgia-Georgia Southern game on Nov. 21, 2015. Que assumed the title of Uga X at the age of 2 1/2 years. During his audition, he made appearances at the Countdown to Kickoff event in July 2015, as well as Picture Day in August, before presiding over the entirety of the 2015 football season. Que capped his inaugural season by leading the team to a 24-17 victory over Penn State at the 2016 Taxslayer Bowl.

The Arch

Serving as the official symbol of the University of Georgia, the Arch was built in the 1850s and originally served as part of a larger iron fence securing the campus. Daniel Redfearn (BL 1909, BS 1910) is credited with making the Arch the sacred symbol of UGA. Recognized as one of the school's finest icons, students today hold the Arch in high regard as its three pillars represent the virtues of wisdom, justice, and moderation.

The "G"

In 1963 after becoming the Bulldogs' Head Football Coach, Vince Dooley redesigned the football uniform, choosing a red helmet with a black "G" on a white background as the dominant feature of the new uniform for the 1964 season.

He discussed with his staff that a forward-looking "G" would be an appropriate emblem for the helmet of the Georgia team. Dooley had just hired John Donaldson, former Georgia player from 1945 to 1948, as backfield coach. Donaldson was keen on the idea of a new image and volunteered his wife, Anne, who had a BFA in commercial art from UGA, to design a logo for the new Georgia helmet with the general specifications Dooley had outlined. Dooley accepted Anne's original "G" which fit his vision for a forward look to Georgia's new emblem.

Since the Georgia "G", though different in design and color, was similar to Green Bay's "G", Coach Dooley thought it best to clear the use of Georgia's new emblem with the NFL team. Athletic Director Joel Eaves called for permission, which was granted. However, since its inception in 1961, the Green Bay "G" has been redesigned several times and now looks like Georgia's original 1964 "G." Georgia is proud that the Packers apparently liked the special nuances of the Bulldogs' forward-looking "G".

Georgia's oval "G", eventually replacing Georgia's old block "G" as the official UGA symbol, has stood the test of time. It made its first appearance in the opening game in 1964 and was an immediate hit with the Georgia fans, especially after Dooley's first three teams were so successful—highlighted by the 1966 SEC Championship.

"Silver Britches"

Silver Britches were an innovation of Coach Wally Butts, who took over as head coach in 1939. The handsome pants complemented the bright red jersey and made for a striking uniform. Through the years, fans referred to the Bulldogs' silver britches in their chants and on banners, but the phrase really caught on in the early fifties with a cheer, banners, and colorful vests that proclaimed "Go, You Silver Britches." Coach Vince Dooley re-designed the uniform when he came in 1964 and used white pants; however, he re-instituted the silver britches in 1980 just prior to what turned out to be Georgia's national championship season.

The Chapel Bell

The ringing of the chapel bell after a Georgia victory is a tradition that continues even though freshmen are no longer ordered to do the chore. In the 1890's, the playing field was located only yards from the Chapel and first-year students were compelled to ring the bell until midnight in celebration of a Bulldog victory. Today students, alumni, and townspeople still rush to the Chapel to ring the bell after a gridiron victory.

"Glory, Glory"

Among the University's oldest and most lasting traditions is the school fight song, "Glory, Glory," which is sung to the tune of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." It was sung at games as early as the 1890's, but arranged in its present form by Georgia's immortal musician-composer Hugh Hodgson in 1915. There have been many Bulldog songs through the years and at least two collections dating back to 1909 have been published, but none have enjoyed more acceptance than "Glory, Glory."

"How 'Bout Them Dogs"

This is a slogan of recent vintage, but one that has become a battle cry of Bulldog fans probably because of its obvious grammatical slur. It first surfaced during the mid to late 1970's especially during the 1978 season when the Bulldogs posted several remarkable, come-from-behind victories. It gained national attention and exposure when Georgia won the national championship in 1980. A major wire service used the phrase in its story of Georgia's victory over Notre Dame and many newspapers picked it up in glaring headlines across the country proclaiming "How 'Bout Them Dogs!"

"Bulldogs"

Many oldtimers say Georgia acquired the nickname, "Bulldogs," because of the strong ties with Yale, whose nickname is "Bulldogs." Georgia's first president, Abraham Baldwin, was a Yale man and the early buildings on campus were designed from blueprints of the same buildings at Yale. However, the first references to the nickname "Bulldogs" actually came in the 1910's (1911-20) by Atlanta newspaper writers covering both football and baseball games. Although used occasionally during the previous decade, the nickname began to be consistently used around 1920.

On Nov. 3, 1920, Morgan Blake of the Atlanta Journal wrote about school nicknames and said "The Georgia Bulldogs would sound good because there is a certain dignity about a bulldog, as well as ferocity." After a 0-0 tie with Virginia in Charlottesville on Nov. 6, 1920, Atlanta Constitution writer Cliff Wheatley used the name "Bulldogs" in his story five times. Gene Hinton also used the term "Bulldogs." The nickname seemed to be off and running.

"Between The Hedges"

A reference to Sanford Stadium that dates to the early 1930's. The famous Chinese privet hedges that surround Sanford's playing field were only one foot high when the stadium was dedicated in 1929 and were protected by a wooden fence. It was natural for a clever sports writer, referring to an upcoming home game, to observe "that the Bulldogs will have their opponent 'between the hedges." At least one old-timer says the phrase was first coined by the legendary Atlanta sportswriter Grantland Rice.

"Lone Trumpeter"

Seven minutes before kickoff in Sanford Stadium, the Bulldog Nation directs its attention to a lone trumpeter standing in the upper deck of the southwest corner of the stadium. The soloist is recognized and begins to play the first 14 notes of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." The Battle Hymn solo was originally composed in 1987 as a student project by Jeff Simmons and became a part of the pre-game traditions in 2000. Each year, 25-30 members of the Redcoat Band audition for one of the 4-5 soloist positions.
